Today S Nigerian Baptist Convention Sunday School Lessons:

Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe, 2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti development and a political Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective Using the case study method this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria s Niger Delta region Adopting approaches from practical theology congregational studies and anthropology of religion the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria s political economy of oil and conflict How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and fundamentalist Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a political and anti development What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria s political economy of oil look like The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul winning Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio political milieu Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion a theology of prayer and an ethics of crude oil with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria s political economy of oil While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology the affinity and dissonance between the two are identified

Training 1842-1970 J.K. Agbeti, 2023-10-09 The training of African Christian ministers had been a matter of concern to the erstwhile International Missionary Council now merged with the World Council of Churches The reason was that it was believed by some critics that missionaries gave only low priority to theological training This book recounts how the missionaries actually trained the indigenous leaders in the mission fields The study covers the world of British German Swiss and American Protestant missionaries as well as that of two Roman Catholic orders in seminary training relating to Anglophone West Africa The value of the book is that its contents apart from filling a vacuum in the ecclesiastical history of West Africa will supply the factual basis upon which an objective evaluation can be given about the efforts of the Western missionary theological training until 1970 The Missionary Review of the World, 1923 The History of First Baptist Church, Okélerin, Ogbomoso (1855-1999) First Baptist Church (Okélerin Ogbomoso, Nigeria).
