Hemalatha, Dr. K. Saravanan, Dr. D. Sailakshmi, 2025-10-13 Toni Morrison's fiction often details ways in which the author's characters both black and white cause problems for themselves and others However besides showing human frailties in her four novels they Bluest Eye 1970 Sula 1973 Song of Solomon 1977 and Tar Baby 1981 Morrison also suggests positive ways to help people build happy creative lives One of the author's central themes is that humans to live meaningfully must create a balance between the order and disorder in their lives In practical terms these opposite forces can take many forms For Cynthia Davis in Self Society and myth in Toni Morrison's fiction writes of the difficulties caused by characters who use other to escape their own responsibility to define themselves When confronted with decisions about how to deal with such opposites a number of Morrison's characters choose correctly they do not understand the wisdom of neither being swept away by chaos nor succumbing to mistaken beliefs that complete order or control will make them happy Their decisions create equilibrium a balance of form and chaos and thus these people are able to fashion coherent productive lives for themselves The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential Odisea nº 13 Nobel-Augusto Perdu Honeyman,2015-10-08 Anuario dirigido y gestionado por miembros del rea de Filolog a Inglesa del Departamento de Filolog a de la Universidad de Almer a con el prop sito de ofrecer un foro de intercambio de producci n cient fica en campos del conocimiento tan diversos como la lengua inglesa literatura en lengua inglesa did ctica del ingl s traducci n ingl s para fines espec ficos y otros igualmente vinculados a los estudios ingleses

Toni Morrison David L. Middleton,1987 Toni Morrison's novel "Sula". Identity and Subalternity Imad Guemmah,2014-06-25 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject African Studies African diaspora language English abstract This paper approaches an exploration of two major themes in Sula social identity and gender subalternity I would begin with a general presentation of the major points that mark this Oscar winning novel and then shift to violently serious disagreements that bear reference to the submissive subaltern position that Sula on behalf of every woman of color has to embrace As the novel as well as a bundle of essays and articles explain the protagonist is weary of all that binds her to submission and has thus decided to follow her own way of life The analysis is held from a Postmodern perspective I would therefore attempt to build a bridge between the discourse of Morrison who is addressing her message in the name of Sula and that of postmodernism which is a deviation from representation and a turn towards self reflexivity I am eventually describing the societal tension between Sula and her fellow denizens who are caught up in an arena of contest the ground of which is experience and circumstances Alien Among Us: Reflections Of Women Writers On Women S.P.
