surface of my skin and my muscles movements connect me to my old self Especially it is the movements of summer when more of me meets the elements while I am swimming or feeling my bramble scratched legs against hot rocks Or when I am experiencing the lovely lassitude that fills me at the end of a long afternoon of sun and water as I stand slicing tomatoes for my supper while corn boils and sun falls in the window on a pile of raspberries in a bowl All my senses all are alive from I ll Tell You a Secret A delightful beautifully written and thoroughly engaging story of coming of age in the 1950s that focuses on Anne Coleman between the ages of fourteen and twenty one and her relationship with Mr MacLennan Canadian literary figure Hugh MacLennan which played out in the summers in the village of North Hatley Quebec a picturesque resort that has been known to attract artists and writers and the upper classes In prose that is intimate visual and resonant with immediacy Anne Coleman brings us back to summers in the 1950s revealing the eccentricities of North Hatley and its residents but most of all focusing on her special friendship with a man many years her senior Independent individualistic sensually alert as a young girl Anne Coleman did not fit the mould Later when Anne is eighteen she leads a double life one which follows the course of a romance with Frank the dark brooding European young man who has a strange hold over her and the enigmatic Mr MacLennan whose own feelings for Anne suggest themselves to her in ways that are at once confusing tantalizing and deeply important Along the way the story also offers a wonderfully evocative portrayal of the 1950s its sexual repressiveness and mores The beautiful village of North Hatley comes alive in vivid ways This is a unique coming of age story by a writer who writes sentences that cut to the bone From the Hardcover edition Vasconcelos William Gilmore Simms,1882

Deep Secrets Niobe Way, 2013-05-06 Boys are emotionally illiterate and don t want intimate friendships In this empirically grounded challenge to our stereotypes about boys and men Niobe Way reveals the intense intimacy among teenage boys especially during early and middle adolescence Boys not only share their deepest secrets and feelings with their closest male friends they claim that without them they would go wacko Yet as boys become men they become distrustful lose these friendships and feel isolated and alone Drawing from hundreds of interviews conducted throughout adolescence with black Latino white and Asian American boys Deep Secrets reveals the ways in which we have been telling ourselves a false story about boys friendships and human nature Boys descriptions of their male friendships sound more like something out of Love Story than Lord of the Flies Yet in late adolescence boys feel they have to man up by becoming stoic and independent Vulnerable emotions and intimate friendships are for girls and gay men No homo becomes their mantra These findings are alarming given what we know about links between friendships and health and even longevity Rather than a boy crisis Way argues that boys are experiencing a crisis of connection because they live in a culture where human needs and capacities are given a sex female and a sexuality gay and thus discouraged for those who are neither Way argues that the solution lies with exposing the inaccuracies of our gender stereotypes and fostering these critical relationships and fundamental human skills
