A black t-shirt is shown against a white background. The t-shirt features a graphic of a dog's head, likely a Rottweiler, in silhouette. Instead of a face, the head is composed of an open book. The pages of the book are visible, showing a cream or light yellow color. The book is open, with the pages fanning out. The title 'Toby' is printed in large, bold, red letters across the chest of the t-shirt, over the book graphic. In Love with Movies Daniel Talbot, 2022-04-13 All that I do is go out and look at films and choose the ones I want to play films that stimulate and give some insight into our lives I hope that people will come but if they don't that's okay too Daniel Talbot changed the way the Upper West Side and art house audiences around the world went to the movies In Love with Movies is his memoir of a rich life as the impresario of the legendary Manhattan theaters he owned and operated and as a highly influential film distributor Talbot and his wife Toby opened the New Yorker Theater in 1960 cultivating a loyal audience of film buffs and cinephiles He went on to run several theaters including Lincoln Plaza Cinemas as well as the distribution company New Yorker Films shaping the sensibilities of generations of moviegoers The Talbots introduced American audiences to cutting edge foreign and independent filmmaking including the French New Wave and New German Cinema In this lively personal history of a bygone age of film exhibition Talbot relates how he discovered and selected films including future classics such as Before the Revolution Shoah My Dinner with Andre and The Marriage of Maria Braun He reminisces about leading world directors such as Semb ne Godard Fassbinder Wenders Varda and Kiarostami as well as industry colleagues with whom he made deals on a slip of paper or a handshake In Love with Movies is an intimate portrait of a tastemaker who was willing to take risks It not only lays out the nuts and bolts of running a theater but also tells the story of a young cineophile who turned his passion into a vibrant cultural community

Need to Know John G. Stackhouse Jr., 2014-05-30 How should a Christian think If a serious Christian wants to think seriously about a serious subject from considering how to vote in the next election to choosing a career from deciding among scientific theories to selecting a mate from weighing competing marketing proposals to discerning the best fitness plan what does he or she do This basic question is at the heart of a complex discourse epistemology A bold new statement of Christian epistemology Need to Know presents a comprehensive coherent and clear model of responsible Christian thinking Grounded in the best of the Christian theological tradition while being attentive to a surprising range of thinkers in the history of philosophy natural science social science and culture the book offers a scheme for drawing together experience tradition scholarship art and the Bible into a practical yet theoretically profound system of thinking about thinking John Stackhouse's fundamental idea is as simple as it is startling Since God calls human beings to do certain things in the world God can be relied upon to supply the knowledge necessary for human beings to do those things The classic Christian concept of vocation then supplies both the impetus and the assurance that faithful Christians can trust God to guide their thinking on a need to know basis
