Toll the Hounds Steven Erikson, 2008-09-16 While the city of Darujhistan becomes increasingly subject to assassins tyrants and the oppressive summer weather Anomander Raks Son of Darkness plots a deadly revenge from the distant city of Black Coral Toll The Hounds Steven Erikson, 2009-05-27 Fantasy cliches are dodged or given new twists the narrative

teems with clever invention the writing is excellent SFX ____ In Darujhistan the saying goes that Love and Death shall arrive together dancing It is summer and the heat is oppressive yet the discomfiture of the small rotund man in the faded red waistcoat is not entirely due to the sun Dire portents plague his nights and haunt the city's streets like fiends of shadow Assassins skulk in alleyways but it seems the hunters have become the hunted Strangers have arrived and while the bards sing their tragic tales somewhere in the distance can be heard the baying of hounds All is palpably not well And in Black Coral too something is afoot Memories of ancient crimes surface clamouring for revenge and Anomander Rake Son of Darkness has come to right an ancient and terrible wrong And so it would seem that Love and Death are indeed about to make their entrance This is epic fantasy at its most imaginative storytelling at its most exciting ____ What readers are saying Epic action and breathless tension Dark and compelling it was really hard to put down Innovative unexpected filled with laugh out loud humour but also terribly poignant

Subcreation: Fictional-World Construction from J.R.R. Tolkien to Terry Pratchett and Tad Williams Stefanie Schult, 2017-01-26 The doctoral thesis argues that the term Subcreation with its revised and broadened definition in part differing from J R R Tolkien's original term sub creation may be used for the discussion of the making of fictional worlds in literary discourse The successful conception of a fictional world depends on the reader's willing suspension of disbelief This depends both on the author and his skilled composition of the world and all its aspects as well as on the reader's acceptance of this invented fictional world The author needs to create a narrative with an inner consistency which is crucial to achieving the effect of the reader's immersion in the fictional world The fundamental aspects that an author needs to realize to achieve successful Subcreation have been structured into and analysed in four categories Language and Linguistic Variation Physiopoeia Anthropoeia and Mythopoeia Furthermore this thesis shows that as contemporary examples of fantastic literature both Tad Williams's and Terry Pratchett's fictional worlds are successfully created through the realization of these aspects of Subcreation Apart from commenting on the success of the subcreative process this thesis also remarks upon the cultural influences both authors include in their writings While both may be considered Anglophone in a general categorization Pratchett's Discworld retains a feeling of Britishness that is not to be found in Williams's Otherland The thesis proposes several approaches to Subcreation that may be studied subsequently So for example it may be possible to determine the success of an author's Subcreation by collecting empirical data Apart from literary works this field of studies may also include other media
