Care for the Sorrowing Soul Duane Larson, Jeff Zust, 2017-10-26 Moral Injury is now recognized as a growing major problem for military men and women Operant conditioning can overwhelm moral convictions and yet the question of whether to shoot or not to shoot often will never have a settled answer Certain theories and treatment models about MI have been well developed but too often overlook root issues of religious faith The authors propose a new model for understanding moral injury and suggest ways to mitigate its virtually inevitable occurrence in pre combat training and ways to resolve MI post trauma with proven spiritual resources People outside the military too among whom the incidence of MI also is a growing threat will benefit from this analysis The stories of the injured their shaping and their telling are the key and there are many illumining stories of moral injury and recovery Those who suffer MI their families and caregivers including counselors pastors and faith communities will find hope giving first steps toward the healing of MI in this book
