Bollar, 2020-08-25 Stand out like you're 7 feet tall how to think and act differently as a K-12 leader Tall people stand out in a crowd Tall people think and act differently people like author Steven Bollar He has spent his career as a principal and administrator creating school cultures that make students excited to learn and achieve their goals In Stand Tall Leadership

Steven shows you that it doesn't matter what your natural height really is; you can stand tall in everything you do by thinking and acting differently from those around you. Designed for K-12 leaders, this unique and engaging book helps you overcome challenges in your school, manage effectively, inspire your staff, build strong relationships, communicate clearly, and much more. The Stand Tall Leadership philosophy is all about creating the best possible environment at your school. Strong leadership skills are essential for making better decisions, maintaining your focus and priority, and maximizing outcomes with students, staff, parents, and the entire community. The principles and techniques in this book will strengthen your own leadership skills and assist you in developing effective leaders within your school. Providing hands-on tools and real-world guidance, this valuable resource will help you connect with staff, understand their needs, and set them up for success. Keep your best employees and leaders right where they are, not chasing other opportunities. Assess your leadership skills and make immediate, meaningful improvements. Maintain focus in any situation to increase productivity and get outstanding results. Repair damaged relationships that slow down progress and impede success. Stand Tall Leadership: Stand Tall to Think Differently and Lead Successfully is a must-read for all K-12 leaders and administrators, as well as K-12 educators looking to develop their leadership skills. The Tazie Effect Pen-Tech Professional, Heather Whittaker, 2009 Surviving High School Diane Elia, 2024-12-16 Surviving High School is a book of short stories about four friends: Kendra, Amber, Bonnie, and Griselda, who deal with being high school teenagers. Kendra must deal with a bully and an overly protective friend. As she stands up for herself, she learns that she can do great things. Amber is teamed with a homeschooled student, Julian, who thinks he's a musical prodigy. In the end, she learns how to work with different people, and he learns that he's not perfect. Bonnie and her twin brother, Barry, are very competitive. After a series of school-related events, they both learn that they are equally good students and athletes. Griselda competes against her sister, Anna, in a scholarship pageant. At the end of the pageant, Griselda learns that she has a lot of potential. Anna learns that she can use her intelligence and creativity to become a better person. During homecoming week, all four friends enjoy the festivities and make new memories that will last a lifetime. X Marks The Target & Y Is Where I Landed Michael DeBenedictis, 2017-09-19 If you haven't had the luxury of experiencing a person in presence, conversation, and misadventures, simply read their work with an open mind and forgiving spirit. Truth and thought-provoking dialogue are most forthcoming when one is made to write it down and reflect upon it, making it impossible to lie to oneself or anyone else. This writer finds that autobiographical material is the most honest and unwatered down or puffed up when it is the stuff of supplanting source details for fiction and poetry work. There it can be found purposefully and subconsciously left at or just below the surface for the sake of discovery. Other times it is a capture for personal and scientific study and understanding and release method. This book's material is no different. It is full of interesting and humorous everyday observations, deep philosophical waxing, honest reflection of current life and times, and relieving exorcising of mental luggage for the sake of inspiring another and offering experiential knowledge.
