The representation of gender in the novel "Things Fall Apart" by Chinua Achebe Nicole Piontek, 2022-01-24 Seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2.0 University of Bonn Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik und Keltologie course Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures language English abstract This paper is going to argue whether Achebe's novel Things Fall Apart illustrates an Ibo society with socially constructed gender roles Male dominance and supremacy are visible throughout the whole novel just as the subordination and discrimination of the female gender Moreover the novel depicts numerous gender stereotypes which will be analysed in this paper to achieve a better understanding of the gender ideologies in Achebe's society Strong gender roles can be seen in various situations in the life of Okonkwo which is why this paper is going to be focussed on different aspects in the life of the protagonist of the novel Beside the question whether Things Fall Apart portrays strong masculine dominance the following questions will be answered Are there differences in the various spaces regarding gender roles in the novel Is there an aspect in Ibo s society in which the subordination of women is broken These questions allow the paper to take female rebellion into consideration and to keep the analysis open to a variety of readings of the novel without purely focussing on the reader s first impression of the dominance of manhood The Fiction of Chinua Achebe Jago Morrison,2009-07-23 Since the emergence of Things Fall Apart in 1958 Chinua Achebe has come to be regarded by many as the Godfather of modern African writing Over 150 full length studies of his work have been published together with many hundreds of scholarly articles This Reader s Guide enables students to navigate the rich and bewildering field of Achebe criticism setting out the key areas of critical debate the most influential alternative approaches to his work and the controversies that have so often surrounded it The Guide examines Achebe s key novels with the main focus on Things Fall Apart and also discusses his less well known short fiction Including discussion of important Nigerian scholarship that is often inaccessible this is an invaluable introduction to the work of one of Africa s most important and popular writers Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart Ben J. Ezuma,1965 The Death of Jesus and the Politics of Place in the Gospel of John Peter Claver Ajer,2016-09-01 This book s findings are rich and intriguing In his death Jesus the chief architect in the production of space in the Christian realm founds an alternative community that reorders space and creates a new reality for believers This new community which dwells in this radical new space successfully resists the domination of oppressive regimes and mindsets such as the Roman Empire Suffering is transformed here Many recent biblical studies have utilized various methodologies and historical critical viewpoints which have been helpful However drawing on theories of space and postcolonial approaches Dr Ajer breaks new ground in Johannine studies a new terrain that will yield much fruit The new understandings of space provide a key with which we may unlock more of the mysteries of the Fourth Gospel as Ajer here demonstrates with powerful new discoveries and insights into John s Passion narrative

Postcolonial Imaginations and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozone Eze, 2011-12-16 The postcolonial African culture as it is discoursed in the academia is largely influenced by Africa's response to colonialism To the degree that it is a response it is to considerably reactive and lacks forceful moral incentives for social critical consciousness and nation building Quite on the contrary it allows especially African political leaders to luxuriate in the delusions of moral rectitude imploring at will the evil of imperialism as a buffer to their disregard of their people This book acknowledges the social and psychological devastations of colonialism on the African world It however argues that the totality of African intellectual response to colonialism and Western imperialism is equally if not more damaging to the African world In what ways does the average African leader indeed the average African judge and respond to his world How does he conceive of his responsibility towards his community and society The most obvious impact of African response to colonialism is the implicit search for a pristine innocent paradigm in for instance literary philosophical social political and gender studies This search has its own moral implication in the sense that it makes the taking of responsibility on individual and social level highly difficult Focusing on the moral impact of responses to colonialism in Africa and the African Diaspora this book analyzes the various manifestations of delusions of moral innocence that has held the African leadership from the onerous task of bearing responsibility for their countries it argues that one of the ways to recast the African leaders responsibility towards Africa is to let go on the one hand the gaze of the West and on the other of the search for the innocent African experience and cultures Relying on the insights of thinkers such as Frantz Fanon Wole Soyinka Kwame Anthony Appiah Achille Mbembe and Wolfgang Iser this book suggests new approaches to interpreting African experiences It discusses select African works of fiction as a paradigm for new interpretations of African experiences
