Sample Questions

Student Name _____

The intent of these sample test materials is to orient teachers and students to the types of questions on FCAT 2.0 tests. By using these materials, students will become familiar with the types of items and response formats they will see on the actual test. The sample questions and answers are not intended to demonstrate the length of the actual test, nor should student responses be used as an indicator of student performance on the actual test. Additional information about test items can be found in the FCAT 2.0 Test Item Specifications at <http://fcit.fldoe.org/fcat2/itemspecs.asp>.

The FCAT 2.0 Reading tests and sample questions and answers are based on the 2007 Next Generation Sunshine State Standards.

The sample questions for students and the sample answers for teachers will only be available online, at <http://fcit.fldoe.org/fcat2/fcatitem.asp>.

Directions for Answering the Reading Sample Questions

The questions in this booklet are called multiple-choice questions. A multiple-choice question is followed by several answer choices. Read all the answer choices under each question and decide which answer is correct. You will fill in the bubble next to the answer choice you think is correct for each multiple-choice question. You will mark your answers in this book. If you don't understand a question, ask your teacher to explain it to you. Your teacher has the answers to the sample questions.

Language, Literacy, and Pedagogy in Postindustrial Societies Paul C. Mocombe,Carol Tomlin,2013-01-17 In postindustrial economies such as the United States and Great Britain the black white achievement gap is perpetuated by an emphasis on language and language skills with which black American and black British Caribbean youths often struggle This work analyzes the nature of educational pedagogy in the contemporary capitalist world system under American hegemony Mocombe and Tomlin interpret the role of education as an institutional or ideological apparatus for capitalist domination and examine the sociolinguistic means or pedagogies by which global and local social actors are educated within the capitalist world system to serve the needs of capital i e capital accumulation Two specific case studies one in the United States and one in the United Kingdom are utilized to demonstrate how contemporary educational emphasis on language and literacy parallels the organization of work and contributes to the debate on academic underachievement of black students vis a vis their white and Asian counterparts

The Test Anya Kamenetz, 2015-01-06. The anti-testing movement now has a guidebook. Kamenetz shows how fundamentally American it would be to move toward a more holistic system. New York Times Book Review. The Test is an essential and critically acclaimed book for any parent confounded by our national obsession with standardized testing. It recounts the shocking history and tempestuous politics of testing and borrows strategies from fields as diverse as games, neuroscience, and ancient philosophy to help children cope. It presents the stories of families, teachers, and schools maneuvering within and beyond the existing educational system, playing and winning the testing game. And it points the way toward a hopeful future of better tests and happier kids.

The Dark Side of Teaching Tonya Harris-Weaver, 2010-11. This book is about my life as a teacher and the unethical procedure followed by the Polk County School Board to try to end my teaching career. The Educational Code of Ethics was not used as a guide line regarding my termination. I was fired twice without warning or notice. I e-mailed the governor the first time for reinstatement. After being reinstated, I was fired again. When I asked why I was fired, the principal looked at me with a smile and said, "Reflect back." Well, what was there to reflect back on when mostly all of my children scored high on their state and national reading test? This book deals with the emotional stress of teachers and what they encounter on a daily basis in the school system. Why is it that not all of our teachers' voices are being heard? Some parts of the book talk about mission and vision, the little principals, how to avoid pitfalls of teaching, how to become an effective teacher, and steps you can take if you are terminated. The emotional stress of the student with without disabilities in learning. Why are our children failing state and national test but making A B honor roll on class room test? Emotional stress of parents and why is there a break down in the educational system? How to determine if your child has an effective or ineffective teacher. Statistical reports from other states regarding education. This book uncovers the Dark Side Of Teaching. When you have finished reading this book you will have the knowledge and tools needed to become an effective teacher as well as knowing your rights according to the code of ethics

The Oppositional Culture Theory Paul C. Mocombe, Carol Tomlin, 2010-10-11 Mocombe and Tomlin explore the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain gaining understanding through black bourgeois living and the labeled pathologies of the black underclass Within the class dualism of capitalist social relations blacks throughout the Diaspora attempt to exist in the world Furthermore blacks must construct their identities and be in the world by choosing between the discursive practices of the Protestant and capitalist ideology of the black Protestant bourgeoisie or the beliefs of the black underclass which appear to dismiss these practices as acting white John Ogbu's term Presently the practical consciousness constituted as hip hop culture of the black underclass supported by finance capital have dominated the American and global social structure and one of its dys functions is the black white achievement gap which is a global phenomenon emanating from black America and affecting blacks around the globe Although the histories of blacks in America and in Great Britain are fundamentally different Mocombe and Tomlin argue in this work that during the age of globalization the social functions of the dominating black consciousness hip hop culture coming out of America are the locus of causality for the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain Tomlin highlights this problematic by analyzing effective strategies employed by high achieving blacks in Great Britain and Mocombe does the same through an analysis of an effective reading curriculum in an American inner city after school program
