The Cat's Table Michael Ondaatje, 2012-06-12 From Michael Ondaatje an electrifying novel by turns thrilling and deeply moving one of his most vividly rendered and compelling works of fiction to date In the early 1950s an eleven year old boy boards a huge liner bound for England At mealtimes he is placed at the lowly Cat s Table with an eccentric and unforgettable group of grownups and two other boys As the ship makes its way across the Indian Ocean through the Suez Canal into the Mediterranean the boys find themselves immersed in the worlds and stories of the adults around them At night they spy on a shackled prisoner his crime and fate a galvanizing mystery that will haunt them forever Looking back from deep within adulthood and gradually moving back and forth from the decks and holds of the ship to the years that follow the narrator unfolds a spellbinding and layered tale about the magical often forbidden discoveries of childhood and the burdens of earned understanding about a life long journey that began unexpectedly with a sea voyage

Castration Desire Robinson Murphy, 2023-12-14 Theorizes an alternative form of masculinity in global literature that is less egocentric and more sustainable both in terms of gendered and environmental power dynamics Contemporary novelists and filmmakers like Kazuo Ishiguro Japanese British Emma Donoghue Irish Canadian Michael Ondaatje Sri Lankan Canadian Bong Joon ho South Korean and J M Coetzee South African Australian are emblematic of a transnational phenomenon that Robinson Murphy calls castration desire That is these artists present privileged characters who nonetheless pursue their own diminishment In promulgating through their characters a less egocentric mode of thinking and acting these artists offer a blueprint for engendering a more other oriented global relationality Murphy proposes that in addition to being an ethical prerogative castration desire s less is more model of relationality would make life livable where veritable suicide is our species otherwise potential fate Castration desire thus offers an antidote to rapacious extractivism with the ambition of instilling a sustainable model for thinking and acting on an imminently eco apocalyptic earth In providing a fresh optic through which to read a diversity of text types Castration Desire helps define where literary criticism is now and where it is headed Castration Desire additionally extends and develops a zeitgeist currently unfolding in critical theory It brings Leo Bersani s concept psychic utopia together with Judith Butler s radical egalitarianism but transports their shared critique of phallic individualization into the environmental humanities In doing so this book builds a new framework for how gender studies intersects with environmental studies

Coming Through Slaughter Michael Ondaatje, 2011-03-23 Bringing to life the fabulous colorful panorama of New Orleans in the first flush of the jazz era this book tells the story of Buddy Bolden the first of the great trumpet players some say the originator of jazz who was in any case the genius the guiding spirit and the king of that time and place In this fictionalized meditation Bolden an unrecorded father of Jazz remains throughout a tantalizingly ungraspable phantom the central mysteries of his life his art and his madness remaining felt but never quite pinned down Ondaatje's prose is at times startlingly lyrical and as he chases Bolden through documents and scenes the novel partakes of the very best sort of modern detective novel one where the enigma is never resolved but allowed to manifest in its fullness Though more experimental in form than either The English Patient or In the Skin of a Lion it is a fitting addition to the renowned Ondaatje oeuvre
