Gender Talk Johnnetta B. Cole, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2009-01-16 Why has the African American community remained silent about gender even as race has moved to the forefront of our nation's consciousness In this important new book two of the nation's leading African American intellectuals offer a resounding and far reaching answer to a question that has been ignored for far too long Hard hitting and brilliant in its analysis of culture and sexual politics Gender Talk asserts boldly that gender matters are critical to the Black community in the twenty first century In the Black community rape violence against women and sexual harassment are as much the legacy of slavery as is racism Johnnetta Betsch Cole and Beverly Guy Sheftall argue powerfully that the only way to defeat this legacy is to focus on the intersection of race and gender Gender Talk examines why the race problem has become so male centered and how this has opened a deep divide between Black women and men The authors turn to their own lives offering intimate accounts of their experiences as daughters wives and leaders They examine pivotal moments in African American history when race and gender issues collided with explosive results from the struggle for women's suffrage in the nineteenth century to women's attempts to gain a voice in the Black Baptist movement and on into the 1960s when the Civil Rights movement and the upsurge of Black Power transformed the Black community while sidelining women Along the way they present the testimonies of a large and influential group of Black women and men including bell hooks Faye Wattleton Byllye Avery Cornell West Robin DG Kelley Michael Eric Dyson Marcia Gillispie and Dorothy Height Providing searching analysis into the present Cole and Guy Sheftall uncover the cultural assumptions and attitudes in hip hop and rap in the O J Simpson and Mike Tyson trials in the Million Men and Million Women Marches and in the battle over Clarence Thomas's appointment to the Supreme Court Fearless and eye opening Gender Talk is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of African American women and men

Color - Class - Identity John Arthur, Amy Shapiro, 2018-02-12 Three recent and dramatic national events have shattered the complacency of many people about progress however fitful in race relations in America The Clarence Thomas Anita Hill hearings the O J Simpson trial and the Million Man March of Louis Farrakhan have forced reconsideration of their assumptions about race and racial relations The Thomas Hill hearings exposed the complexity and volatility of perceptions about race and gender The sight of jubilant blacks and despondent whites reacting to the O J Simpson verdict shook our confidence in shared assumptions about equal protection under the law The image of hundreds of thousands of black men gathering in Washington in defense of their racial and cultural identity angered millions of whites and exposed divisions within the black community These events were unfolding at a time when there seemed to be considerable progress in fighting racial discrimination On the legal side discrimination has been eliminated in more and more arenas in theory if not always in practice Economically more and more blacks have moved into the middle class albeit while larger numbers have slipped further back into poverty Intellectually figures like Cornel West Henry Louis Gates Jr and Patricia J Williams are playing a central role as public intellectuals In the face of these disparate trends it is clear that Americans need to rethink their assumptions about race racial relations and inter racial communication Color Class Identity is the ideal tool to facilitate this process It provides a richly textured selection of readings from Du Bois Cornel West Derrick Bell and others as well as a range of responses to the particular controversies that are now dividing us Color Class Identity furthers these debates showing that the racial question is far more complex than it used to be it is no longer a simple matter of black versus white and racial mistrust A landmark anthology that will help advance understanding of the present unease not just between black and white but within each community this book will be useful in a broad range of courses on contemporary U S society

Who Got the Camera? Eric Harvey, 2021-10-05 Reality first appeared in the late 1980s in the sense not of real life but rather of the TV entertainment genre inaugurated by shows such as Cops and America's Most Wanted the daytime gabfests of Geraldo Oprah and Donahue and the tabloid news of A Current Affair In a bracing work of cultural criticism Eric Harvey argues that reality TV emerged in dialog with another kind of entertainment that served as its foil while borrowing its techniques gangsta rap Or as legendary performers Ice Cube and Ice T called it reality rap Reality rap and reality TV were components of a cultural revolution that redefined popular entertainment as a truth telling medium Reality entertainment borrowed journalistic tropes but was undiluted by the caveats and context that journalism demanded While N W A's Fuck tha Police countered Cops vision of Black lives in America the reality rappers who emerged in that group's wake such as Snoop Doggy Dogg and Tupac Shakur embraced reality's visceral tabloid sensationalism using the media's obsession with Black criminality to collapse the distinction between image and truth. Reality TV and reality rap nurtured the world we live in now where politics and basic facts don't feel real until they have been translated into mass mediated entertainment. American Apartheid Douglas S. Massey, Nancy A. Denton, 1998-07-15 This powerful and disturbing book clearly links persistent poverty among blacks in the United States to the unparalleled degree of deliberate segregation they experience in American cities. Dark Designs and Visual Culture Michele

Wallace, 2004-12-06 A collection of writings from the 90s by the popular Black feminist scholar and journalist on film art and politics. Veil and Vow Aneeka Ayanna Henderson, 2020-01-29 In Veil and Vow Aneeka Ayanna Henderson places familiar often politicized questions about the crisis of African American marriage in conversation with a rich cultural archive that includes fiction by Terry McMillan and Sister Souljah music by Anita Baker and films such as The Best Man Seeking to move beyond simple assessments of marriage as good or bad for African Americans Henderson critically examines popular and influential late twentieth and early twenty first century texts alongside legislation such as the 1996 Defense of Marriage Act and the Welfare Reform Act which masked true sources of inequality with crisis laden myths about African American family formation. Using an interdisciplinary approach to highlight the influence of law politics and culture on marriage representations and practices Henderson reveals how their kinship veils and unveils the fiction in political policy as well as the complicated political stakes of fictional and cultural texts. Providing a new opportunity to grapple with old questions including who can be a citizen a wife and marriageable Veil and Vow makes clear just how deeply marriage still matters in African American culture. Words of Fire Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 1995 An anthology of African American Feminist thought

The Black Atlantic Paul Gilroy, 1993 An account of the location of black intellectuals in the modern world following the end of racial slavery.
