The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger, 2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell's novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell's novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author's strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines

Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy's Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives

The English Cyclopædia, 1857, David Mitchell's Post-Secular World Rose Harris-Birtill, 2019-01-10 Since the publication of Ghostwritten 1999 David Mitchell has rapidly established himself as one of the most inventive and important British novelists of the 21st century In this landmark study Rose Harris Birtill reveals the extent to which Mitchell has created an interconnected fictional world across the full run of his writing Covering Mitchell's complete fictions from bestselling novels such as Cloud Atlas 2004 The Bone Clocks 2014 and number9dream 2001 to his short stories and his libretti for the operas Sunken Garden and Wake this book examines how Buddhist influences inform the ethical worldview that permeates his writing Using a comparative theoretical model drawn from the Tibetan mandala to map Mitchell's fictional world Harris Birtill positions Mitchell as central to a new generation of post secular writers who re-examine the vital role of belief in galvanizing action amidst contemporary ecological political and humanitarian crises David Mitchell's Post Secular World features two substantial new interviews with the author a chronology of his fictions and a selected bibliography of important critical writings on his work

Constructing Coherence in the British Short Story Cycle Patrick Gill,Florian Kläger,2018-05-11 The first major collection of essays on the contemporary British short story cycle this volume offers in depth explorations of the genre by comparing its strategies for creating coherence with those of the novel and the short story collection inquiring after the ties that bind individual short stories into a cycle A section on theory approaches the form from the point of view of genre theory cognitive literary studies and book studies It is followed by investigations of hitherto neglected aspects of the generic tradition of the British short story cycle and how they relate to the contemporary outlook of the form Readings of individual contemporary cycles illustrating the form s multifaceted uses from the presentation of sexual identities to politics and trauma make up the third and most substantial part of the volume placing its focus squarely on the past decades Unique in its combination of a focus on the literary traditions politics and markets of the UK with a thorough examination of the genre's manifold formal and thematic potentials the volume explores what is at the heart of the short story cycle as a literary form the constant negotiation between unity and separateness collective and individual of coherence and autonomy The Connoisseur ,1924 The Planetary Clock Paul Giles,2021-02-11 The theme of The Planetary Clock is the representation of time in postmodern culture and the way temporality as a global phenomenon manifests itself differently across an antipodean axis To trace postmodernism in an expansive spatial and temporal arc from its formal experimentation in the 1960s to environmental concerns in the twenty first century is to describe a richer and more complex version of this cultural phenomenon Exploring different scales of time from a Southern Hemisphere perspective with a special emphasis on issues of Indigeneity and the Anthropocene The Planetary Clock offers a wide ranging revisionist account of postmodernism reinterpreting literature film music and visual art of the post 1960 period within a planetary framework By bringing the culture of Australia and New Zealand into dialogue with other Western narratives it suggests how an antipodean impulse involving the transposition of the world into different spatial and temporal dimensions has long been an integral if generally occluded aspect of postmodernism Taking its title from a Florentine clock designed in 1510 to measure worldly time alongside the rotation of the planets The Planetary Clock ranges across well known American postmodernists John Barth Toni Morrison to more recent science fiction writers Octavia Butler Richard Powers while bringing the US tradition into juxtaposition with both its English Philip Larkin Ian McEwan and Australian Les Murray Alexis Wright counterparts By aligning cultural postmodernism with music Messiaen Ligeti Birtwistle the visual arts Hockney Blackman Fiona Hall and cinema Rohmer Haneke Tarantino this volume enlarges our understanding of global postmodernism for the twenty first century The Book Lover's Quiz Book Gary Wigglesworth,2020-11-05 I love a quiz so the book I'm most hoping to find in my Christmas stocking is this ingenious book of literary questions red herrings and conundrums Much more than a straightforward question and answer book it promises the kind of variety that will enliven evenings with family and friends And I might know some of the answers VAL McDERMID Outside of a dog The Book Lover's Quiz Book is every bookworm's best friend inside of a dog well if you know the rest you're going to love this book PETER HANINGTON author of A Dying Breed peterhanington.co.uk This is the ultimate literary quiz book and Gary Wigglesworth is the quizmaster to end all quizmasters DAVID QUANTICK davidquantick.com This is a literary quiz book with a difference Rather than basic sets of questions The Book Lover's Quiz Book mirrors the format of Gary's live quizzes at the Betsey Trotwood in London and elsewhere So there are lots of multiple choice questions some amusing answers clever red herrings little known facts about authors and some of the much loved Say What You See picture round Also there are fixed and variable rounds fixed ones include Blankety Books one word missing from the title always with a theme Literary Links and lists what connects next in the list etc and 2 of a Kind name the character and the author that share the same initials The changeable rounds keep the quizzes fresh and include What the Dickens real or made up Dickens names RomeNo or JuliYess real or made up

Shakespearian insults and Book Bingo identify the correct number There are also more standard rounds such as First Lines Working Titles and Banned Books The aim of all Gary s quizzes and this book is that people should have fun and be able to guess if they don t know as much as possible Close Reading with Computers Martin Paul Eve,2019-06-04 Most contemporary digital studies are interested in distant reading paradigms for large scale literary history This book asks what happens when such telescopic techniques function as a microscope instead The first monograph to bring a range of computational methods to bear on a single novel in a sustained fashion it focuses on the award winning and genre bending Cloud Atlas 2004 Published in two very different versions worldwide without anyone taking much notice David Mitchell s novel is ideal fodder for a textual genetic publishing history reflections on micro tectonic shifts in language by authors who move between genres and explorations of how we imagine people wrote in bygone eras Though Close Reading with Computers focuses on but one novel it has a crucial exemplary function author Martin Paul Eve demonstrates a set of methods and provides open source software tools that others can use in their own literary critical practices In this way the project serves as a bridge between users of digital methods and those engaged in more traditional literary critical endeavors

Literary Representations of Japan: At the Intersection of David Mitchell and Haruki Murakami's Worlds Eugenia Prasol,2023-09-12 This book will focus on analyzing the different aspects of Japan s representation in the novels of Haruki Murakami and David Mitchell It is proven that Murakami creates and recreates Japan without implementing any orientalist features or exotic imagery In the works of both authors the intent to depict a new world of Japan stripped of traditional stereotypical traits becomes clear The difference between Murakami and Mitchell s representation of Japan lies in the difference between Japan as seen by the Japanese and Japan as seen by modern Westerners but both are correct images of Japan It is a recreation of the global image of Japan In that sense the texts of Murakami and Mitchell are complementary representations of Japan through East West cultural dialogue Studying the representations of Japan and Japanese national character helps to understand the role of Murakami and Mitchell in the formation of a new image of Japan the de stereotyping of anachronistic ideas about Japanese national exclusivity enriching by doing so the world literature with new visions of the country and its culture The purpose of the comparative analysis of English and Japanese literary works performed in this work is to reveal both deep analogies and differences in the representation of the image of Japan actualizing the national specificity of the texts This research advances the understanding of how both general and specific components of literary representations of Japan and Japaneseness are manifested in the East West cultural dialogue The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction since 1945 David James,2015-10-06 This Companion offers a compelling engagement with British fiction from the end of the Second World War to the present day Since 1945 British literature has served to mirror profound social geopolitical and environmental change Written by a host of leading scholars this volume explores the myriad cultural movements and literary genres that have affected the development of postwar British fiction showing how writers have given voice to matters of racial regional and sexual identity Covering subjects from immigration and ecology to science and globalism this Companion draws on the latest critical innovations to provide insights into the traditions shaping the literary landscape of modern Britain thus making it an essential resource for students and specialists alike
