New York Magazine , 1984-11-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The London Mercury Sir John Collings Squire, 1922 German Literature in a New Century

Katharina Gerstenberger, Patricia Herminhouse, 2008-10-01 While the first decade after the fall of the Berlin wall was marked by the challenges of unification and the often difficult process of reconciling East and West German experiences many Germans expected that the new century would achieve normalization The essays in this volume take a closer look at Germany's new normalcy and argue for a more nuanced picture that considers the ruptures as well as the continuities Germany's new generation of writers is more diverse than ever before and their texts often not only speak of a Germany that is multicultural but also take a more playful attitude toward notions of identity Written with an eye toward similar and dissimilar developments and traditions on both sides of the Atlantic this volume balances overviews of significant trends in present day cultural life with illustrative analyses of individual writers and texts The Bookman , 1921 The Bookseller , 1912

From Béarn to Southern Africa or The Amazing Destiny of Eugène Casalis Marie-Claude Mosimann-Barbier, 2014-06-02 The end of the 20th century was a time of post colonial repentance in the Western world On 23rd February 2005 a law was passed in France stressing the positive role of the French presence overseas triggering considerable controversy However the fascinating history of the French missionary Eug ne Casalis illustrates that there are some cases where the French presence overseas is still perceived positively as shown by the commemorative stamps issued by the Kingdom of Lesotho in 1983 celebrating the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the first French missionaries in the country Of course the context was unique since France had no economic or political stakes in that part of the world and therefore the French missionary presence was totally apostolic and disinterested Eug ne Casalis was born in B arn at the foot of the Pyr n es in 1812 and remained deeply attached to his native land throughout his life In 1832 he was sent to Southern Africa by the Paris Evangelical Missionary Society Unexpected circumstances led him to Basutoland present day Lesotho where he struck up an unfailing friendship based on mutual trust and esteem with the Sotho King Moshoeshoe In addition to his missionary task Casalis transcribed the language and contributed largely to the economic development of the country while concurrently supporting the King in his efforts to convince the British to help him fight Boer expansionism He gave invaluable diplomatic aid and advice to the King during the 23 years he spent in the country Back in France in 1855 he became the director of the House of Missions where he trained a number of young men to become missionaries His eldest son became a missionary to Lesotho and his eldest daughter married a missionary with whom she returned to Lesotho where she brought up a large family All this has contributed to making the name of Casalis well known in the Kingdom to this day To a certain extent Lesotho s accession to independence in 1966 can be perceived as a distant result of Casalis s work The present King Letsie 111 is a direct descendant of King Moshoeshoe
