The Black Holocaust For Beginners Se Anderson:

The Black Holocaust S. E. Anderson, 1995 Breathing new life into a horrific period of history this book takes readers back to the roots of African slavery in 1441 and brings them forward Told from the point of view of one of the captive African women the story shares her suffering shame and helplessness but also the bonding among captives and their efforts to maintain sacred traditions and rituals Illustrations

Becoming White Margaret Blackburn White, 2009-03-19 BECOMING WHITE My Family s Experience as Slave Holders and Why It Still Matters follows the travels of three of my ancestral families as they came from the Old World to the new American colonies In this lively history you will follow these families from Scotland England and Northern Ireland to their new homes in the colonies and most important see where and when they first came into contact with enslaved Africans and how they became slave holders themselves Although the book presents my own families histories it is really a parable for everyone s family history Whether we came here long ago or last year whether we are of European African Hispanic Asian or Native American heritage we have all been affected by the experience of being enslaved or of holding slaves The thesis of the book is that the experience of holding other people as slaves was the origin of racism in the United States and that that particular kind of racism has affected all of us and even affects people who have never lived here

Blind Memory Marcus Wood, 2000 Throughout this important volume the author provides an invaluable addition to the limited literature now available on the visual images associated with slavery and abolition integrated into a sophisticated analysis of their meaning and legacy today of color images 150 illustrations

Ethnomathematics Arthur B. Powell, Marilyn Frankenstein, 1997-01-01 Presents the emerging field of ethnomathematics from a critical perspective challenging particular ways in which Eurocentrism permeates mathematics education and mathematics in general
