The Body Artist Don DeLillo, 2001-04-07 A stunning novel by the bestselling National Book Award winning author of White Noise and Underworld Since the publication of his first novel Americana Don DeLillo has lived in the skin of our times He has found a voice for the forgotten souls who haunt the fringes of our culture and for its larger than life real life figures His language is defiantly radiantly American In The Body Artist his spare seductive twelfth novel he inhabits the muted world of Lauren Hartke an artist whose work defies the limits of the body Lauren is living on a lonely coast in a rambling rented house where she encounters a strange ageless man a man with uncanny knowledge of her own life Together they begin a journey into the wilderness of time love and human perception The Body Artist is a haunting beautiful and profoundly moving novel from one of the finest writers of our time

The Body Artist, 2001-02 From the award winning bestselling author of White Noise and Underworld comes a spare seductive novel about marriage loneliness and the nature of creativity Widow Lauren Hardke encounters a strange man possessed of knowledge of her life and accompanies him on an extraordinary exploration of time love and human perception Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Audio Book Mikko Keskinen, 2008-01-01 Audio Book deals with the ways in which the auditory voices sounds noises is represented in postphonograph narrative fiction More specifically it examines how the various technologies enabling the transmission or storing of sound and voice are figured in selected prose works Drawing from contemporary American British French and German literature the author discusses these use of these technologies in Nicholson Baker's Vox Michel Tournier's Tristan Vox Heinrich B ll's Murke's Collected Silences Don DeLillo's The Body Artist Nick Hornby's High Fidelity and Sylvia Brownrigg's The Metaphysical Touch The texts foreground sound technologies the telephone radio tape recorder answering machine record player or counterintuitively e mail in their narration and manifest important aspects of audio in literature In prior criticism these texts have not been systematically read from media technological perspectives The sound technologies represented in the texts problematize the clear distinction between speech and writing or between natural articulation and its technological reproduction Audio Book suggests that literary writing is metaphorically conceivable as a transmitting and storing technology as an audiobook of sorts capable of recording upon writing and reproducing upon reading auditory information The sound technologies proper have also bearing on the narrative structure metaphors and style of each fictional work studied in Audio Book In addition themes such as identity genre the nature of literary representation and the absence presence problem are brought to the fore on account of the technologies depicted

The Body Artist Don DeLillo, 2011-02-18 The Body Artist begins with normality breakfast between a married couple Lauren and Rey in their ramshackle rented house on the New England coast Recording their delicate intimate half complete thoughts and words DeLillo proves himself a stunningly unsentimental observer of our idiosyncratic relationships But after breakfast Rey makes a decision that leaves Lauren utterly alone or seems to As Lauren the body artist of the title becomes strangely detached from herself and the temporal world the novel becomes an exploration of a highly abnormal grieving process a fascinating expose of who we are when we are not rehearsing who we are and a rarefied study of trauma and creativity absence and presence isolation and communion

The Dawn of Christian Art in Panel Paintings and Icons Thomas F. Mathews, Norman E. Muller, 2017-02-01 Staking out new territory in the history of art this book presents a compelling argument for a lost link between the panel painting tradition of Greek antiquity and Christian paintings of Byzantium and the Renaissance While art historians place the origin of icons in the seventh century Thomas F Mathews finds strong evidence as early as the second century in the texts of Irenaeus and the Acts of John that describe private Christian worship In closely studying an obscure set of sixty neglected panel paintings from Egypt in Roman times the author explains how these paintings of the Egyptian gods offer the missing link in the long history of religious painting Christian panel paintings and icons are for the first time placed in a continuum with the pagan paintings that preceded them sharing elements of iconography technology and religious usages as votive offerings Exciting discoveries punctuate the narrative the technology of the triptych enormously popular in Europe traced by the authors to the construction of Egyptian portable shrines such as the Isis and Serapis of the J Paul Getty Museum the discovery that the egg tempera painting medium usually credited to Renaissance artist Cimabue has been identified in Egyptian panels a millennium earlier and the reconstruction of a ring of icons on the chancel of Saint Sophia in Istanbul This book will be a vital addition to the fields of Egyptian Graeco Roman and late antique art history and more generally to the history of painting

Don DeLillo Peter Boxall, 2006-04-18 One of the few available books of criticism on the topic this monograph presents the fullest account to date of Don DeLillo's writing situating his oeuvre within a wider analysis of the condition of contemporary fiction and dealing with his entire work in relation to contemporary political and economic concerns for the first time Providing a lucid and nuanced reading of DeLillo's ambivalent engagement with American and European culture as well as with modernism and postmodernism and globalization and terrorism this fascinating volume interrogates the critical and aesthetic capacities of fiction in what is an age of global capitalism and US cultural imperialism

Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism Mary K. Holland,2020-06-11 Literature has never looked weirder full of images colors gadgets and footnotes and violating established norms of character plot and narrative structure Yet over the last 30 years critics have coined more than 20 new realisms in their attempts to describe it What makes this decidedly unorthodox literature realistic And if it is then what does realism mean anymore Examining literature by dozens of writers and over a century of theory and criticism about realism The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism sorts through the current critical confusion to illustrate how our ideas about what is real and how best to depict it have changed dramatically especially in recent years Along the way Mary K Holland guides the reader on a lively tour through the landscape of contemporary literary studies taking in metafiction ideology posthumanism postmodernism and poststructuralism with forays into quantum mechanics new materialism and Buddhism as well to give us entirely new ways of viewing how humans use language to make sense of and to make the world The Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth,1923 Obstetrics,

Analog Fictions for the Digital Age Julia Breitbach, 2012 Shows how current photographic discourse can illuminate the analysis of recent literary realism and proposes a truly original photographic hermeneutics for literary study Both realist post modernist aesthetics in the twenty first century and the legacy of analog photography in its recent digital incarnation depend on an aesthetics of trust and a sense of contingent referentiality Julia Breitbach's innovative study demonstrates how current photographic discourse may be used as an illuminating critical idiom for the analysis of recent forms of literary realism thus proposing a photographic hermeneutics for the study of literature Along with a thorough critical investigation of both fields Breitbach offers a pioneering theoretical exploration of analog and digital photography based on recent thing theory which she then applies to in depth analyses of realist aesthetics in selected post millennial novels by Don DeLillo Michael Ondaatje and Ali Smith yielding fresh perspectives on the remediation between photography and literature in the twenty first century An original contribution to the study of contemporary Anglophone literatures with an interdisciplinary appeal this study will be of interest especially to scholars and students in Anglophone literary studies comparative literature cultural studies and media studies Julia Breitbach is Assistant Professor in the Department of American Studies at the University of Konstanz Germany

Ecstatic Consumption Pavlina Radia, 2016-12-14 While modernity aspired to fix radical alienation through aesthetics by assigning an ethical value to narratives contemporary literature and the arts are no longer immune to the impact of commodity culture amplified by globalization In the world of commodity corporate logic and cyborgs the very notion of identity is frequently turned into a spectacle Yet it is also simultaneously mobilized by the search for what Jean Baudrillard describes as the ecstatic form that materializes aesthetics Ecstatic Consumption The Spectacle of Global Dystopia in Contemporary American Literature investigates not only how these transformations affect gender racial and class relations as well as how they impact the representation of historical events Pop culture media and discourses of multiculturalism both important venues of and vehicles for globalization have had an extensive effect on contemporary writers like Don DeLillo Marge Piercy and Jane Smiley as have the discourses of terrorism and assimilation on the works of Diana Abu Jaber Chang Rae Lee Shalom Auslander and Alissa Torres As the works of these authors show the tendency to unify the world as a global village has been frequently complicit in perpetuating oppressive neo colonial ideologies As these writers reveal literature no longer provides a solid cure for the somnambulist culture of instant gratification On the global stage the body becomes the ultimate commodity the fetish of ecstatic consumption as it is persistently mobilized by the search for ecstatic avatar anti forms Whether these forms provide an escape into a utopian space or further enhance the dystopian ecstasy is a crucial query framing this book As it shows the works of DeLillo Smiley Piercy Abu Jaber Lee Auslander and Torres provide important and challenging commentaries on the ecstatic gaze of global dystopia particularly its appetite for alterity and the tragic often disguised as interchangeable metaphors of Otherness fear anxiety terror pain and pleasure titillation exoticism and ecstasy Consequently the book sheds light on the ways in which the culture of spectacle is ever evolving manipulating and affecting the global dependence on the ecstasy of consumption and its many different forms

The Art Interchange ,1883 Expressions of the Body Charlotte Baker,2009 This book contributes to a growing corpus of writing on the body bringing new perspectives to this fascinating and topical subject Feminist psychoanalytic and queer readings among others have demonstrated the extent of the functions and roles fulfilled by the body as well as the number of critical perspectives it can serve However by and large African representations of the body have been overlooked This coherent volume brings together essays on the portrayal of the body in African art film literature photography and theatre The book includes thematically linked contributions which explore issues of power and representation and reflects current trends in the study of the body and more broadly within the field of African Studies Slow Art Arden Reed,2017-06-27 Introduction marking time What is slow art when images swell into events and events condense into images Living pictures Before slow art Slow art emerges in modernity I secularization from Diderot to Wilde Slow art emerges in modernity II the great age of speed Slow fiction film video performance 1960 to 2010 Slow photography painting installation art sculpture 1960 to 2010 Angel and devil of slow art The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1859
