The Breast Divine:

Swedenborg's Works Emanuel Swedenborg, 1907 The House of the Mother Cynthia R. Chapman, 2016-10-25 A novel approach to Israelite kinship arguing that maternal kinship bonds played key social economic and political roles for a son who aspired to inherit his father's household Upending traditional scholarship on patrilineal genealogy Cynthia Chapman draws on twenty years of research to uncover an underappreciated yet socially significant kinship unit in the Bible the house of the mother In households where a man had two or more wives siblings born to the same mother worked to promote and protect one another's interests Revealing the hierarchies of the maternal houses and political divisions within the national house of Israel this book provides us with a nuanced understanding of domestic and political life in ancient Israel Arcana Cœlestia Emanuel Swedenborg, 1909 Arcana Coelestia Emanuel Swedenborg, 1857 Suckling at My Mother's Breasts Ellen Davina Haskell, 2012-11-06 One of Kabbalah's most distinctive images of the feminine divine is that of a motherly breastfeeding God Suckling at My Mother's Breasts traces this idea from its origins in ancient rabbinic literature through its flourishing in the medieval classic Sefer ha Zohar The Book of Splendor Taking the position that kabbalistic images provide specific detailed models for understanding the relationship between God and human beings Ellen Davina Haskell connects divine nursing theology to Jewish ideals regarding motherhood breastfeeding and family life from medieval France and Spain where Kabbalah originated Haskell's approach allows for a new evaluation of Kabbalah's feminine divine one centered on culture and context rather than gender philosophy or psychoanalysis As this work demonstrates the image of the nursing divine is intended to cultivate a direct emotional response to God rooted in nurture love and reliance rather than knowledge sexuality or authority *Arcana Cœlestia.
