Diary of a Dying Girl Mallory Smith, 2014-05-07 This collection of one girl's real unflinching diary entries about slowly dying of a terminal illness is an unparalleled exploration of the human spirit and what it means to truly live. Many of the feelings I write about are too difficult to share while I'm alive so I'm keeping everything in my journal password protected until the end. Mallory Smith was no ordinary girl and this is no ordinary story. At age three Mallory was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis, a disease that attacks the internal organs and would eventually kill her. Despite living on borrowed time, Mallory pursued her passions: volleyball, writing, the environment, her boyfriend, family, and friends. Most importantly, every day she chose to embody the mantra "live happy." Mallory also had her struggles: everything from love and sex to living with illness and just being a human on this planet. And she chronicled every bit of it, writing thousands of diary entries before her death in her twenties. This is the poignant true story of a young woman who refused to be defined by chronic illness. Her light and her life are shared here in her own words to encourage everyone to live life to the fullest as she did even as she was dying.

Haunted Bay City, Michigan Nicole Beauchamp, 2020-09-14 At the base of the Saginaw Bay on Lake Huron lies historic Bay City, a gorgeous town with a dark past. In its early days, a six-block strip known as Hell's Half Mile was an epicenter of debauchery and brutality. This tumultuous history has left a deep paranormal imprint on the area. A sinister Victorian lady terrorizes those who visit the upper level of the Bay City Antiques Center. The ghost of a disfigured little girl roams Sage Library. And the former caretaker of the USS Edson lovingly tends the ship after death as he did in life. Local author and paranormal investigator Nicole Beauchamp takes you on a bone-chilling journey through Bay City's most haunted locales.

Why and how American colleges and universities need to change in order to meet the nation s pressing needs American higher education faces some serious problems but they are not the ones most people think In this brief and accessible book two leading experts show that many so called crises from the idea that typical students are drowning in debt to the belief that tuition increases are being driven by administrative bloat are exaggerated or simply false At the same time many real problems from the high dropout rate to inefficient faculty staffing have received far too little attention In response William G Bowen and Michael S McPherson provide a frank assessment of the biggest challenges confronting higher education and propose a bold agenda for reengineering essential elements of the system to meet them The result promises to help shape the debate about higher education for years to come Lesson Plan shows that for all of its accomplishments higher education today is falling short when it comes to vital national needs Too many undergraduates are dropping out or taking too long to graduate minorities and the poor fare worse than their peers reinforcing inequality and college is unaffordable for too many But these problems could be greatly reduced by making significant changes including targeting federal and state funding more efficiently allocating less money for merit aid and more to match financial need creating a respected teaching corps that would include nontenure faculty improving basic courses in fields such as math by combining adaptive learning and face to face teaching strengthening leadership and encouraging more risk taking It won t be easy for faculty administrators trustees and legislators to make such sweeping changes but only by doing so will they make it possible for our colleges and universities to meet the nation s demands tomorrow and into the future Crossing the Floor Helen Leahy, 2015-11-23

Catholic to the Core! Kathy Husak-Tarnacki,2022-02-17 Catholic to the Core was born out of a restlessness in the heart of the author Since the early 1990s Kathy Husak Tarnacki felt a very distinct call from God to focus her skills and passions regarding education in a way that honored Christ in every way possible The call was so clear to her that she approached her pastor at the time and asked for permission to open a school within the church She had never been a principal and had never taken formal classes regarding administration but she knew that when God calls he equips And that he did The years that followed were filled with unexpected twists and turns in her professional career and her journey of faith from Catholicism to a non denominational setting then back to the Catholic Church Each step exposed her to new aspects of the possibilities and challenges present when you pursue Christ wholeheartedly as well as highlighting how far schools have fallen from fulfilling their God given purpose These experiences filled her heart and mind with thoughts questions concerns and possible solutions for the lukewarm atmospheres of many of our Catholic schools In 2014 she felt a tugging to begin to write her thoughts down on paper not sure exactly what the purpose would be Now in 2022 she is blessed with the opportunity to publish what she wrote and share it with the hope that it will encourage conversation reflection and determined action
