As you read, use the following questions to guide you through the novel in focusing on plot, characters, literary devices, and themes.

By completing the guide, you empower yourself with insightful thinking and a voice.

Archetypes:

The God Teacher – a benevolent or malevolent mentor/guide intent on teaching its subject or subjects ways of life and means for making decisions.

The Flood Story – cleansing the world with water or fire to allow the rebirth

Allusions:

Icarus – Greek reference to the young man who arrogantly felt empowered with the wings his father made him and flew too close to the sun. As a result, he burned and fell to the earth dead.

1. Beatty compares Montag to Icarus. Explain the comparison based on the allusion described above.
2. Beatty has met the archetypal role of God Teacher throughout the novel. In your opinion, is he punishing or saving Montag when he says "(Fire's) real beauty is that it destroys responsibility and consequences"? Is he benevolent or malevolent? Support your answer.
3. Why does Montag feel burning his house is "good to burn"?
4. What is the irony of Beatty mocking Montag by quoting these lines from Shakespeare's Julius Caesar: "There is no terror, Cassius, in your threats, for I am arm'd so strong in honesty that they pass by me as idle wind, which I respect not," and his calling Montag a "second-hand literature"?
