III- IDENTIFICATION- Be very specific on description of people, events, places, etc – use the textbook or notes

- 1- Daniel Shays - Fought in the Massachusetts military, continental soldier, small farmer, middle class, puts all his earnings back into his farm, Massachusetts taxed their citizens and since he didn't have gold or silver, they were going to take his land. Ironical that they fought a war so that they don't get taxed unfairly but it happens to him. He starts a rebellion and gets the militia and rebels. This is anarchy and would lead to this happening in each state.
- 2- James Madison - anti federalist who understands why a central government is needed but doesn't want to give up his individual rights. Tries to explain to Hamilton why he believes there shouldn't be a central government. He believed that an individual bill of rights was missing from the constitution. Wants individual rights so that he and others are able to do something if one person leads the central government and does unfair things. Considered the Father of the Bill of Rights. He wrote the majority of the 10 amendments and his argument in passing the Bill is that this is to protect a person's individual rights from an unfair and tyrant government. So people can fight back if need be and their rights can't be stepped on.
- 3- Annapolis Convention - A conference hosted in George Washington's home, Mt. Vernon, Virginia by Washington to review what could be done about the nation's problems.
