Holy Living: Confession Paul W. Chilcote, 2020-02-18 While physical training has some value, training in holy living is useful for everything. It has promise for this life now and the life to come. 1 Timothy 4:8 Christians crave a deeper, more intimate relationship with God. Spiritual disciplines are activities and practices that guide you in your daily walk through life, bringing you closer to Christ. They also help you to make a difference in our world. Practicing these spiritual disciplines opens you to God's transforming love and helps you experience Holy Living. Confession may be good for the soul, as the saying goes, but most people give little thought to its practice at least on a daily basis. Like prayer, a person's needs tend to trigger a confessional response. As a result, we often have a limited understanding of the true nature of the practice. Confession is so much more than a call to apologize, though that is an integral part. Confession is fundamentally relational, providing the opportunity to experience a much fuller relationship with God. This book provides opportunities both to examine and to practice the many forms that confession takes. It begins by looking at our confession of faith, not sins, and what we affirm about the nature and purposes of God. From there, it moves to exploration and practices of individual confession, mutual confession, and worship, which provides one of the most significant contexts for the people of God to confess their sin before God and one another. This is one of a series of eight books. Each book in this series introduces a spiritual practice, suggests a way of living the practice daily, and provides opportunities to grow personally and in a faith community with others who engage with the practice. Each book consists of an introduction and four chapters and includes questions for personal reflection and group discussion. Other disciplines studied: Celebration, Discernment, Neighboring, Simplicity, Study, and Worship.

Love's Greatest Joy Les Galicinski, 2012-01-25 The God who is Love rejoices greatly when His people walk with Him in Truth. This book provides the essentials of the Christian life in a way that is theologically rich and inspired by the discipleship teachings of past giants of the faith. It provides a solid theological understanding of the character of God, His purposes and desires for His people. It provides an occasion for inner transformation by teaching, asking questions, and providing spiritual exercises that will allow God's Spirit to envelope the reader. It teaches spiritual disciplines that lead to Godly habits and enhance the quality of one's soul life with God. It also seeks to help the reader to move out into the world as one sent by God to testify to the joyous grace of the God who is Love. This book and integrated study guide were developed with several groups of research participants who contributed to its refinement. It is ideal for individual study or for small groups.
