Steal Away Home Study Guide for Assessment 2 - Chapters 7-12

The Weaver Family was against slavery.

When the marshal and his posse arrived in town, James scared because he knew that something bad was about to happen.

Jeremy went to James's house in the middle of the night to tell them that the marshal and his posse were threatening them. He told James to go outside and dig a hole so the family could bury their important belongings in a box.

Some of Mr. Lister's character traits were joyful and helpful.

Mr. Lister told James and his family a story about the legend. She said "Look up, see the sky, see how those stars are dappled. You must draw a line in your mind from star to star that it looks like a big water dapper (unmistakable) is for the brightest star at the handle and which is the one which my brothers and sisters leave their shackles (chains) behind, they follow the north star heading north toward home."

James decided to share the story with Ann because Ann is his best friend and she hoped Ann could help her solve the mystery of the skeleton.
