Islam on the Street Muhsin al-Musawi,2009-06-16 Islam on the Street deals with the popular side of Islam as described not only in tracts and manuals written by Sufi shaykhs and Islamist thinkers from among the more militant groups in Islam but also in writings by other more secular thinkers who have also influenced public opinion A scholar of Arabic literature Muhsin al Musawi explains the growing rift that has occurred between the secular intellectual the forerunner of Arab and Islamic modernity since the late nineteenth century and the upsurge of Islamic fervor in the street at the grassroots level and what these secular intellectuals can do to reconnect with the masses Using some of the most important Arabic and Islamic poetry prose and fiction to come out of the twentieth century Al Musawi provides context for the complex images of Arab and Islamic culture given by the various social religious and political groups providing the motivations Readers interested in the influence of religion and secularism within modern Islamic Arabic literature will find that the author addresses the presence of Islam and Sufism in ways that secular commentators have been incapable of doing

Strategic Maneuvering for Political Change Ahmed Abdulhameed Omar,2019-02-15 In Strategic Maneuvering for Political Change the author analyzes five political columns written before 2011 by Al Aswany a prominent Egyptian novelist using the lens of the extended pragma dialectical theory of argumentation What these texts have in common is the use of narrative fictional and semi literary techniques to strategically maneuver in supporting the feasibility of political change It is a contribution to explain how an anti regime writer paved the way to the Arab Spring in Egypt and thus goes against a common opinion that the Arab Spring in Egypt was fortuitous or a wholly social media based movement This monograph is an attempt to help argumentation theorists linguists analysts of narratives and political scientists better understand and evaluate how fiction and narration can be effective means of persuasion in the domain of political communication It therefore reconsiders the non straightforward and artistic variants of the language of politics

The Work of Literature Derek Attridge,2015 The Work of Literature presents a fresh approach to the question of the value of literature posing and responding to questions about the way we read and write about literature its value to individuals and society how it is best approached by readers and critics and how it retains its power to give pleasure over decades and centuries

Urban Space in Contemporary Egyptian Literature M. Naaman,2016-04-30 An examination of how the space of the downtown served dual purposes as both a symbol of colonial influence and capital in Egypt as well as a staging ground for the demonstrations of the Egyptian nationalist movement

The Discourse of Reading Groups David Peplow,Joan Swann,Paola Trimarco,Sara Whiteley,2015-11-19 Of interest in their own terms as a significant cultural practice reading groups also provide a window on the everyday interpretation of literary texts While reading is often considered a solitary process reading groups constitute a form of social reading where interpretations are produced and displayed in discourse The Discourse of Reading Groups is a study of such joint conceptual activity and how this is necessarily embedded in interpersonal activity and the production of reader identities Uniquely in this context it draws on and seeks to integrate ideas from both cognitive and social linguistics The book will be of interest to scholars in literacy studies as well as cultural and literary studies the history of reading applied linguistics and sociolinguistics digital technologies and educational research

Contemporary Cinema of Africa and the Diaspora Anjali Prabhu,2014-06-23 Analyzing art house films from the African continent and the African diaspora this book showcases a new generation of auteurs with African origins from political aesthetic and spectatorship perspectives Focuses on art house cinema and discusses commercial African cinema Enlarges our understanding of African film to include thematic and aesthetic influence Highlights aesthetic and political aspects including racial identity women s issues and diaspora Heavily illustrated with over 90 film stills Features selected stills integral to the filmic analysis in full color Moves beyond Western oriented analytical paradigms

Cultural Journeys into the Arab World Dalya Cohen-Mor,2018-09-01 A diverse collection of fiction and nonfiction literature from across the Arabic speaking world Cultural Journeys into the Arab World provides a fascinating window into Arab culture and society through the voices of its own writers and poets Organized thematically the anthology features more than fifty texts including poems essays stories novels memoirs eyewitness accounts and life histories by leading male and female authors from across the Arabic speaking world Each theme is explored in several genres both fiction and nonfiction and framed by a wealth of contextual information that places the literary texts within the historical political cultural and social background of the region Spanning a century of Arab creative writing from the dean of Arabic letters Taha Hussein to the Nobel laureate Naguib Mahfouz and the celebrated poet Adonis the anthology offers unforgettable journeys into the rich and dynamic realm of Arab culture Representing a wide range of settings viewpoints and socioeconomic backgrounds the characters speak of their conditions aspirations struggles and achievements living in complex societies marked by tensions arising from the persistence of older traditions and the impact of modernity Their myriad voices paint a vivid and intimate portrait of contemporary Arab life in the Middle East revealing the common humanity of a region of vital significance in world affairs Ageing in the Modern Arabic Novel Samira Aghacy, 2020-09-21 No detailed description available for Ageing in the Modern Arabic Novel Postcolonial Audiences Bethan Benwell, James Procter, Gemma Robinson, 2012-03-12 Without readers and audiences viewers and consumers the postcolonial would be literally unthinkable And yet postcolonial critics have historically neglected the modes of reception and consumption that make up the politics and pleasures of meaning making during and after empire Thus while recent criticism and theory has made large claims for reading as an ethical act as a means of establishing collective quasi political consciousness as identification with difference as a mode of resistance and as an impulsion to the public imagination the reader in postcolonial literary studies persists as a shadowy figure This collection answers the now pressing need for a distinctively postcolonial take on the rapidly expanding area of reader and reception studies Written by some of the top scholars in the field these essays reveal readers and reception to be varied and profoundly unstable subjects that challenge many of our assumptions and preconceptions of the postcolonial from the notion of reading as national fellowship to the demands of an ethics of reading
