,2006-05-26 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2 3 University of Tübingen course PS II Literatur language English abstract In Their Eyes Were Watching God written by Zora Neale Hurston marriage is a central topic The main character of the book Janie is married three times Her husbands are very different from one another which is also reflected in the relationship between her and her husbands in each marriage Nevertheless all three marriages show certain similarities which correspond to common gender roles of this time The following essay thus will explore and analyze these marriages Afterwards it will compare them with regard to three common gender roles of that time and it will show that all three marriages are more or less built upon these common gender specific ideas *Their Eyes Were

Michael Awkward,1990 An analysis of the literary values of Hurston s novel as well as its reception from largely dismissive reviews in 1937 through a revival of interest in the 1960s and its recent establishment as a major American novel Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God Cheryl A. Wall,2000 The rediscovery of Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God first published in 1937 but subsequently out of print for decades marks one of the most dramatic chapters in African American literature and Women s Studies Its popularity owes much to the lyricism of the prose the pitch perfect rendition of black vernacular English and the memorable characters most notably Janie Crawford Collecting the most widely cited and influential essays published on Hurston s classic novel over the last quarter century this Casebook presents contesting viewpoints by Hazel Carby Henry Louis Gates Jr Barbara Johnson Carla Kaplan Daphne Lamothe Mary Helen Washington and Sherley Anne Williams The volume also includes a statement Hurston submitted to a reference book on twentieth century authors in 1942 As it records the major debates the novel has sparked on issues of language and identity* feminism and racial politics A Casebook affirms the classic status of the novel and charts new directions for future critics

Claire Raymond,2019-10-28 Looking at works by Carrie Mae Weems Toni Morrison Emily Dickinson Flannery O Connor Dorothy Allison Carson McCullers and Zora Neale Hurston Claire Raymond uncovers a pattern of femininity constructed around representations of sadistic violence in American women s literature and photography from the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Dickinson s poetry is read through its relationship to the Southern Agrarian critics who championed her work While the representations of violence found in Carrie Mae Weems s installation From Here I Saw What Happened and I Cried Morrison s Beloved Dickinson s poetry O Connor s A View of the Woods and A Good Man Is Hard to Find Allison s Bastard Out of Carolina McCullers Ballad of the Sad Caf and Hurston s Mules and Men are diverse in terms of artistic presentation all allude to or are set in the antebellum and Jim Crow South In addition all involve feminine characters whose subjectivity is shaped by the practice of seeing acts of violence inflicted where there can be no effective resistance While not proposing an equivalence between representing violence in visual images and written text Raymond does suggest that visual images of violence can be interpreted in context with written evocations of violent imagery Invoking sadism in its ethical sense of violence enacted on a victim for whom self defense and recourse of any kind are impossible Raymond s study is ultimately an exploration of the idea that a femininity constructed by the positioning of feminine characters as witnesses to sadistic acts is a phenomenon distinctly of the American South that is linked to the culture s history of racism The

and African American Studies Wesleyan University,1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen s Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women s novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women s fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction
