Student Activism in the Global South Kurauone Masungu,2024-09-01 This book makes an original conceptual and empirical contribution to debates on the role of student activism in enhancing social justice within education in the Global South using South Africa as a case study The book explores the development of higher education students political capabilities through student activism that is the freedom to express political ideas and engage in protests including the following key capabilities participation dialogue practical reasoning voice emotional expression contextual knowledge and physical wellbeing The author considers the possibility of enhancing justice and democracy in higher education through the formation of such student freedoms The book will be of interest to academics and researchers in student activism higher education and social justice as well as institutional staff members with knowledge of student governance members of student representative councils and higher education administrators Accessing Post-School Studies Venica

McGhie,2017-12-01 This publication makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Saeljoe The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Estimates of

National Expenditure South Africa,2006 Governance and the postcolony David Everatt,2019-08-01 Civil society NGOs governments and multilateral institutions all repeatedly call for improved or good governance yet they seem to speak past one another Governance is in danger of losing all meaning precisely because it means many things to different people in varied locations This is especially true in sub Saharan Africa Here the postcolony takes many forms reflecting the imperial project with painful accuracy Offering a set of multidisciplinary analyses of governance in different sectors crisis management water food security universities in different locales across sub Saharan Africa and from different theoretical approaches network to adversarial network governance this volume makes a useful addition to the growing debates on how to govern It steers away from offering a correct definition of governance or from promoting a particular position on postcoloniality It gives no neat conclusion but invites readers to draw their own conclusions based on these differing approaches to and analyses of governance in the postcolony As a robust critical assessment of power and accountability in the sub Saharan context Governance and the Postcolony Views from Africa brings together topical case studies that will be a valuable resource for those working in the field of African international relations public policy public management and administration Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie

Walker,Monica McLean,2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers

The Law of South Africa, 2003 Practical Wisdom and Resilience Overcoming Downside Risk Kazuyo Hanai, Rangarirai Gavin Muchetu, Laban Kithinji Kinyua, Yoichi Mine, 2025-05-24 This book classifies and assesses the real and perceived risks associated with both the Covid 19 pandemic and government responses to it in seven African countries DR Congo Kenya Ethiopia South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe based on large scale quantitative and qualitative surveys conducted in 2022 2024 It also elucidates the people s resilience in overcoming the risks within their political social and cultural context Although research on COVID 19 has been conducted in various fields particularly in the medical field the analytical perspective of this book is unique COVID 19 prevention policies are considered to have seriously increased other risks such as hunger other infectious diseases interruption of education and various types of human rights violations including increased conflict violence against civilians and political abuse Therefore this book argues that COVID 19 prevention policies as well as the pandemic itself should be regarded as the downside risk that triggers the deterioration of the other potential risks to vulnerable people Depicted here is the account of how trust in government community and family within the existing political social and cultural environment created pandemic politics as elections during the pandemic instrumentalized and politicized government prevention measures Economic distress threatened people s lives more than COVID 19 during lockdowns and severe behavioral restrictions and the spread of misinformation discouraged people from being vaccinated This book will be useful to policy makers and practitioners in international society who are preparing for the next pandemic based on the lessons learned from the COVID 19 pandemic

Juta's Statutes of South Africa South Africa, 1992 Online Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Mariam Akinlolu, Manyane Makua, Nomalungelo Ngubane, 2024-06-03 This edited volume explores current practices in African higher education during and post the global pandemic It fills a gap in the existing literature by focusing on student engagement and online learning in South Africa and examines how pandemic restrictions amplified pre existing inequalities within the higher education sector The book is divided into 3 sections The first section discusses various methods of instruction and the use of online tools for facilitating learning succeeded by a section focusing on the resource implications of moving to online learning platforms from a social justice perspective and finally the last section considers issues and concerns about online assessments and quality assurance Drawing on lessons from the experiences of South African educators and students during the pandemic this book provides a knowledge base essential for the effective management of online teaching and learning in Africa It is intended for academic stakeholders to develop and engender an improved higher education climate
