The Plays of William Shakspeare, Collated from the Editions of the Late G. Steevens, Esq., E. Malone, Esq., and Dr. Samuel Johnson. A Sketch of the Author's Life, and Glossarial Notes, with Introductory Observations on Each Play Written Expressly for this Edition. The Whole Revised by S. Maunday William Shakespeare, 1851 Christian Marriage Today Klaus Demmer, Aldegonde Brennkmeijer-Werhahn, 1997

This book is the result of a symposium sponsored by the International Academy of Marital Spirituality INTAMS which brought together a group of distinguished scholars and theologians to discuss the current social and spiritual emergency of Christian marriage. Going beyond a strictly theoretical evaluation of the sacrament of marriage the contributors examine the subject from a pastoral viewpoint and address the praxis situation of couples trying to live out the implications of the sacrament. The volume will be of interest to theologians as well as to catechists involved in the preparation of couples for the sacrament. Klaus Demmer begins the book with an overview of INTAMS. He provides background information on the symposium, outlines the main themes discussed and introduces the essays included in the volume. The first essay by Jörg Splett presents a philosophical reflection on the nature of Christian marriage and the way in which it fulfills the person. From a historical perspective Michel Rouche then provides a survey of the many changes in the concept of marriage and the family throughout European history. Ladislav Rys contributes a fascinating essay in which he describes the sacrament of marriage as a special vocation. He examines the divine and human action in the nuptial ceremony and focuses on God as the principal actor in the event. Rys meditates on God's revealed thoughts on marriage, on God's presence during the ceremony and throughout a couple's married life and on the implications of the Christian doctrine of marriage for spirituality, liturgy and canon law. The final essay by Carlo Rocchetta traces Vatican II's terminological shift from marriage as a contract to marriage as a covenant and outlines the main guidelines for a new theological conceptualization of marriage as a sacrament.
