The Countess' Christmas Miracle Clara Kensington, 2021-10-06. A widowed Countess determinedly settled in her ways yet hiding loneliness, Mary Stratton, the Countess of Havenford, is a single-minded woman. Her sole focus is seeing her stepson, George Stratton, arrive home safe from his time serving in the army to step into his role as the new Earl of Havenford in the wake of his elder brother Frederick's death. She wants George to marry his beloved Miss Miller, and she very much looks forward to George producing grandchildren for her to spoil. Romance is the furthest thing from Lady Havenford's mind. A man returned from war already in love with the impression of a woman gained from letters, The Honourable Mr Roger Wayside arrives in Havenford Village with his young friend, the Earl of Havenford, having been invited to take over as the new Earl's estate manager. Already quite smitten with Lady Havenford based on the letters she sent her stepson during the war, combined with the many wonderful stories Stratton related about his warm and caring stepmother, the former soldier has intentions to woo her in his mind from the start, but it seems that the Countess may have other plans. A son determined to bring them together. If there's one thing George Stratton knows, it's that his stepmother deserves a second chance at love. Though Lady Havenford may not see it yet, George knows that Wayside is the perfect man for the widowed countess. His stepmother can be stubborn and rigid, especially when reality doesn't quite align with her plans, but he knows she has a wealth of love to give if only she'll open her heart to Mr Wayside. So the young Earl's first order of business is matchmaking his stepmother with his dearest friend. A Christmas which changes everything. When George sets his matchmaking plans in motion, the Yuletide season becomes one Havenford Village will not soon forget. Sometimes love blooms in the most unexpected ways, and sometimes matchmakers cultivate that love. The Countess Christmas Miracle is book one in Clara Kensington's new Regency Historical Romance series. A Match Made in Havenford. Fans of Arietta Richmond and Rose Pearson are sure to love Clara Kensington's clean and sweet Regency romances.
