Thesaurus Of Medieval Hebrew Poetry Complete In Volumes:

Thesaurus of Mediaeval Hebrew Poetry Israel Davidson, 2017 This multi volume work is a reprint of Israel Davidson's classic opus with a new introduction by piyyut scholar Michael Rand. Originally published in four volumes by the Jewish Theological Seminary of America throughout the 1920s and 30s and reprinted in 1970 by Ktav with an introduction by Jefim Hayyim Schirmann. Thesaurus of Mediaeval Hebrew Poetry catalogues Medieval Hebrew poetry in over 35 000 entries spanning over 2 000 pages. Written at a time when Genizah research was just beginning to flourish the Thesaurus serves primarily as a catalogue of the Medieval Hebrew poetic corpus as it had been known from printed works predating the publication of Genizah poetry. In addition to constituting an important reference work the Thesaurus represents a stage in the history of piyyut study before the publication of thousands of Genizah poems forever altered the course of Medieval Hebrew poetry scholarship. Communings of the Spirit Mordecai M. Kaplan, 2001 Mordecai M. Kaplan 1881-1983 founder of Reconstructionism is the preeminent American Jewish thinker and rabbi of our times. His life embodies the American Jewish experience of the first half of the twentieth century. With passionate intensity and uncommon candor Kaplan compulsively recorded his experience in his journal some 10 000 pages. This first volume of Communings of the Spirit covers Kaplan's early years as a rabbi, teacher of rabbis and community leader. Kaplan who trained rabbis for half a century gives us an inside picture of life at the Jewish Theological Seminary, the center of Conservative Judaism in America. He records his masterful weekly sermons which were attended regularly by his students. With unflinching candor he reveals his successes and failures, uncertainties and self-doubts. Undeterred by attacks on his radical beliefs he never wavered in the pursuit of a more dynamic Judaism. "Genizat Germania" - Hebrew and Aramaic Binding Fragments from Germany in Context Andreas

Lehnardt, 2010-03-08 Genizat Germania is a project at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz focused on the search for and analysis of Hebrew and Aramaic binding fragments found in the books and files of archives and libraries. In recent years this systematic search has revealed several hundred new fragments including some rare Talmudic, Midrashic and liturgical fragments. The new discoveries both in Germany and elsewhere in Europe have broadened the knowledge of Jewish literature in the Middle Ages and Early Modern periods. This volume collects the papers of international scholars which cover recent discoveries in Germany, the European Genizah or fragments found in Italy, Poland, Great Britain and Austria, the approaches of similar projects in Austria and the Czech Republic as well as an extensive bibliography. The Golden Path David

Sclar, 2023-05-01 Among the intellectual luminaries dotting the millennia of Jewish history none shines brighter than Maimonides 1138-1204. He was a rabbi, jurist, Talmudist, philosopher, physician, astronomer and communal leader and produced a myriad of writings on halakhah, theology, medicine and philosophy that have attained near canonical status. We have more source material from or about Maimonides than possibly any other Jewish figure in the medieval period and more has been written about him than perhaps any other Jew in history. Epithets like the Great Eagle and the Western Light and the glorifying statement From Moses to Moses none arose like Moses reflect centuries of authority influence and fascination The Golden Path traces the impact and reception of Maimonides and his thought through a study of materiality specifically the production and dissemination of textual objects It consists of two sections a descriptive catalogue of an exceptional private collection of manuscripts and rare books and essays from leading scholars on aspects of Maimonides s cultural context influence and appropriation through disparate eras and geopolitical spheres Combining intellectual reception and book historical research the heavily illustrated volume explores his effects in assorted social and political circumstances across diverse intellectual and cultural environments

Poetry and Memory in Karaite Prayer Joachim Yeshaya, 2013-11-07 In Poetry and Memory in Karaite Prayer Joachim Yeshaya offers an edition of liturgical poems which the Karaite poet Moses Dar composed in twelfth century Egypt as introductory poems for the Torah readings on each Sabbath The Hebrew text and Judaeo Arabic heading of each poem are provided in the original order attested in the manuscript NLR Evr I 802 dated to the fifteenth century Every poem comes with a commentary section consisting of English commentary essays and bilingual Hebrew English line by line annotations In the conclusion following this edition Joachim Yeshaya demonstrates how Dar s liturgical poems are among the earliest examples of the introduction of poetry Andalusian Rabbanite poetical norms and the memory of being exiled from Jerusalem into Karaite prayer

Farewell Espana Howard M. Sachar, 1995-10-03 Farewell Espana transcends conventional historical narrative With the lucidity and verve that have characterized his numerous earlier volumes Howard Sachar breathes life into the leading dramatis personae of the Sephardic world the royal counselors Samuel ibn Nagrela and Joseph Nasi the poets Solomon ibn Gabirol and Judah Halevi the philosophers Moses Maimonides and Baruch Spinoza the statesmen Benjamin Disraeli and Pierre Mendes France the warriors Moshe Pijade and David Elazar the fabulous charlatans David Reuveni and Shabbatai Zvi In its breadth and richness of texture Sachar's account sweeps to the contemporary era of Mussolini Hitler and Franco poignantly traces the fate of Balkan Sephardic communities during the Holocaust and their revival in the Land and State of Israel Not least of all the author offers a tactile dimension of immediacy in his personal encounters with the storied venues and current personalities of the Sephardic world Farewell Espana is a window opened on a glowing civilization once all but extinguished and now flickering again into renewed creativity

מנחם שמלצר, 2006 Collected Essays Shir Hama'alot l'David (Song of the Steps) and Ktav Hitnazzelut l'Darshanim (In Defense of Preachers) David Darshan, 1984-12-31 David Darshan of Cracow was the first of the itinerant Jewish preachers whose works were published He was a Renaissance man in a very real sense Preacher scholar artist healer scribe mystic editor commentator and bibliophile and father of five daughters he tried in vain to establish an academy but failed because he was on the wrong side of the establishment He was involved in the reintroduction of the printing of Hebrew books in Poland in 1569 He wrote a commentary on the Jerusalem Talmud as well as a spirited defense of preaching and the preacher's art and copied and illustrated a magnificent Kabbalistic manuscript He wandered through Germany Bohemia and Russia spent time in Italy during the period of the printing of the Zohar and the banning of the Talmud served as scholar in residence at the home of a wealthy Jewish banking family returned to Cracow to become the town darshan and set out for Safed to join the community of Kabbalists and await the Messiah This account of his background and translation of two almost forgotten books Shir haMa'alot l David and Ktav Hitnazzelut l Darshanim a collection of sermons response poems model letters to distinguished persons efforts to fund an academy a sourcebook for would be preachers and a defense of the craft lifts the curtain on the inner life of the Jewish world in the late Middle Ages The reproduction of the Hebrew texts of two books that have all but disappeared places a valuable resource in the hands of scholars The cover illustration for the volume is by David Darshan and appears in the manuscript of Perush hYeri'ah haG'dolah a commentary on the Ten Spheres which he copied illustrated and signed in Modena in 1556 It depicts Rabbi Akiva surrounded by the four creatures of Ezekiel's chariot vision standing between the sketch of the universe and the spherot tree The manuscript is evidence of David's skill as scribe and artist

Naomi Feuchtwanger-Sarig, 2021-12-06 Studies in Medieval Arabic and Hebrew Poetics Somekh, 2023-07-10 Thy Father's Instruction The Nuremberg Miscellany Germanisches Nationalmuseum Nürnberg Bibliothek 8 Hs 7058 Rl 203 is a unique work of scribal art and illumination Its costly parchment leaves are richly adorned and illustrated with multicolour paint and powdered gold It was penned and illustrated in southern Germany probably Swabia in 1589 and is signed by a certain Eliezer ben Mordechai the Martyr The Miscellany is a relatively thin manuscript In its present state it holds a total of 46 folios 44 of which are part of the original codex and an additional bifolio that was attached to it immediately or soon after its production The book is a compilation of various Hebrew texts most of which pertain to religious life Others are home liturgies Biblical exegeses comments on rites and customs moralistic texts homiletic and ethical discourses and an extensive collection of home liturgies its major part being dedicated to the life cycle The unparalleled text compilation of the Nuremberg Miscellany on the one hand and the naïve untrained illustrations on the other hand are puzzling Its illustrations are hardly mindful of volume depth or perspective and their folk art nature suggests that an unprofessional artist possibly even the scribe himself may have executed them Whoever the illustrator was his vast knowledge of Jewish lore unfolds layer after layer in a most intricate way His sharp eye for detail renders the images he executed a valid representation of contemporary visual culture The iconography of the Nuremberg Miscellany with its 55 decorated leaves featuring 25 text illustrations falls into two main categories biblical themes and depictions of daily life both sacred and mundane While the biblical illustrations rely largely on artistic rendering and interpretation of texts the depictions of daily life are founded mainly on current furnishings and accoutrements in Jewish homes The customs and rituals portrayed in the miscellany attest not only to the local Jewish Minhag but also to the influence and adaptation of local Germanic or Christian rites They thus offer first hand insights to the interrelations between the Jews and their neighbors Examined as historical documents the images in the Nuremberg Miscellany are an invaluable resource for reconstructing Jewish daily life in Ashkenaz in the early modern period In a period from which only scanty relics of Jewish material culture have survived retrieving the pictorial data from images incorporated in literary sources is of vital importance in providing the missing link Corroborated by similar objects from the host society and with descriptions in contemporary Jewish and Christian written sources the household objects as well as the ceremonial implements depicted in the manuscript can serve as effective mirrors for the material culture of an affluent German Jewish family in the Early Modern period The complete Nuremberg Miscellany is reproduced in the appendix of this book

Social and Religious History of the Jews Salo Wittmayer Baron, 1965 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women's protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence

Sephardic Studies in the University Jane S. Gerber, 1995 Nevertheless the teaching of Sephardic civilization was incomplete and Eurocentric with the Jews of Islam an ongoing entity for over a thousand years scarcely figuring in any course offerings
