Research Objects in their Technological Setting Bernadette Bensaude Vincent, Sacha Loeve, Alfred Nordmann, Astrid Schwarz, 2017-02-24 What kind of stuff is the world made of What is the nature or substance of things These are ontological questions and they are usually answered with respect to the objects of science The objects of technoscience tell a different story that concerns the power promise and potential of things not what they are but what they can be Seventeen scholars from history and philosophy of science epistemology social anthropology cultural studies and ethics each explore a research object in its technological setting ranging from carbon to cardboard from arctic ice cores to nuclear waste from wetlands to GMO seeds from fuel cells to the great Pacific garbage patch Together they offer fascinating stories and novel analytic concepts all the while opening up a space for reflecting on the specific character of technoscientific objects With their promise of sustainable innovation and a technologically transformed future these objects are highly charged with values and design expectations By clarifying their mode of existence we are learning to come to terms more generally with the furniture of the technoscientific world where for example the dead matter of classical physics is becoming the smart material of emerging and converging technologies Secondary Liability of Internet Service Providers Graeme B. Dinwoodie, 2017-06-28 This book analyses the doctrinal structure and content of secondary liability rules that hold internet service providers liable for the conduct of others including the safe harbours or immunities of which they may take advantage and the range of remedies that can be secured against such providers Many such claims involve intellectual property infringement but the treatment extends beyond that field of law Because there are few formal international standards which govern the question of secondary liability comprehension of the international landscape requires treatment of a broad range of national approaches This book thus canvasses numerous jurisdictions across several continents but presents these comparative studies thematically to highlight evolving commonalities and trans border commercial practices that exist despite the lack of hard international law The analysis presented in this book allows exploration not only of contemporary debates about the appropriate policy levers through which to regulate intermediaries but also about the conceptual character of secondary liability rules Mobile Radio Communications and 5G Networks Nikhil Marriwala, C. C. Tripathi, Dinesh Kumar, Shruti Jain, 2020-09-28 The book features original papers by active researchers presented at the International Conference on Mobile Radio Communications and 5G Networks It includes recent advances and upcoming technologies in the field of cellular systems 2G 2 5G 3G 4G 5G and beyond LTE WiMAX WMAN and other emerging broadband wireless networks WLAN WPAN and various home personal networking technologies pervasive and wearable computing and networking small cells and femtocell networks wireless mesh networks vehicular wireless networks cognitive radio networks and their applications wireless multimedia networks green wireless networks standardization of emerging wireless technologies power management and energy conservation techniques The Future of the Music Business Steve
