Impacts of Innovation and Cognition in Management Bataglia, Walter, Segura, Liliane Cristina, 2024-10-18 In today's business landscape the intersections between innovation and cognition play a crucial role in shaping current management practices. As organizations strive to remain competitive, leaders must foster innovative thinking while understanding which cognitive processes drive decision making and problem solving. Such management strategies assist business leaders in navigating complex challenges, harnessing creativity, and cultivating an adaptive workplace culture. Exploring how innovation and cognition influence strategic choices is necessary for companies looking to enhance responses to change, making room for sustained growth and success in a constantly shifting business environment. Impacts of Innovation and Cognition in Management explores the effects of innovative strategies and technologies, as well as cognitive psychology in management practices for businesses and organizations. The impact on sustainability and organizational development is examined along with the usefulness of technologies like artificial intelligence, machine learning, and data analytics. This book covers topics such as absorptive capacity, data science, and cognitive psychology and is a useful resource for business owners, managers, psychologists, economists, data scientists, researchers, and academicians.

Knowledge Production and Management in Africa Abdul Karim Bangura, 2025-08-11 This contributed volume explores knowledge production and management across diverse African contexts, integrating indigenous perspectives with modern technological advancements. It addresses the intersection of cultural, socioeconomic, and technological factors, offering readers a thorough understanding of how these elements shape knowledge systems in Africa. Structured into five key sections: technology, pedagogy and curricula, business and ecology, culture and community, and human relationships, the book presents a cohesive framework guiding readers through various domains of knowledge production. Each chapter examines specific themes, from AI's moral standing and mobile technologies in agriculture to digital transformation in education and the role of performing arts in cultural orientation. The chapters are authored by experts who provide empirical research, case studies, and theoretical analyses, ensuring a rich and diverse exploration of topics. By challenging conventional paradigms and advocating for context-specific approaches, the book highlights the resilience and innovation inherent in African knowledge practices. Readers will gain a deep understanding of the multifaceted nature of knowledge production in Africa. The book highlights culturally responsive cognitive schemas, the impact of digital technologies on education and business, and the role of indigenous knowledge in sustainable development. Readers will walk away from the book understanding inclusive and effective knowledge management practices and they will have an enhanced appreciation for the unique contributions of African knowledge systems to global discourses.

Countering Terrorist and Criminal Financing Scott N Romaniuk,Christian Kaunert,Amparo Pamela H Fabe,2023-11-09 Countering Terrorist and Criminal Financing provides an up to date overview and critical analysis of terrorism financing focusing on tactics and practical measures directed at preventing money laundering and countering the flow of terrorism funding In doing so the book details some of the major doctrines outlining policies of states and key regional and global partnerships in Europe Asia North America South America the Middle East and Africa Chapters bring together a diverse range of expert scholars and practitioners who specialise in theoretical principles utilising empirical research and an analysis of the cross national networks and cross group collaborations that underpin the illicit activities that fund such groups The book serves as the most current and comprehensive resource in the area of countering the financing of terrorism and organised crime incorporating regional and group specific approaches challenges and consequences This focus encompasses legal measures social policies and military operations and security force responses by states and non state actors to assemble the most up to date counter terrorist financing information into a single volume Socioeconomics, Philosophy, and Deneocoloniality Abdul Karim Bangura,2025-08-21 Existing paradigms such as decoloniality simplify the complex dynamics between former colonies and colonial powers. Such frameworks overlook the role of local elites in maintaining and even enhancing oppressive systems. They also imply that external forces are responsible for ongoing exploitation. This book tackles this concept head on by introducing a new methodology called deneocoloniality. Deneocoloniality expands on decoloniality and neocolonialism. It argues that while decoloniality focuses on the residual impacts of colonialism by external forces, it neglects the internal dynamics where former colonized elites play a significant role in perpetuating oppression for personal gain. The book presents socioeconomic and philosophical case studies to support deneocoloniality as a more comprehensive framework for understanding current realities in African countries. Readers will gain a nuanced understanding of the intricate power structures affecting developing nations. The book provides a structured methodology for analyzing problems, emphasizing the importance of logical reasoning and collaborative efforts. It offers practical solutions based on deep analysis, moving beyond mere diagnosis to actionable recommendations. This approach aims to equip readers with the tools needed to develop policies and strategies that address both external and internal sources of oppression.

Transforming Global Health Partnerships Anna Stewart Ibarra, A. Desiree LaBeaud, 2024-12-31. This is a book about the human experience of conducting global health research linked to operational responses to the control and prevention of diseases worldwide. Rather than a manual or how to guide, we propose a roadmap and vision of equitable, sustainable, and impactful partnerships shared through a rich interweaving of voices. North and South academics and community practitioners, senior mentors and trainees, multiple generations and multiple disciplines. We focus on the stories that need to be told, the successes and the failures, and visions for a healthier and more compassionate future for humanity. This book was written by more than 90 authors from 26 countries, bringing diverse perspectives on global health partnerships, past, present, and future. Although many of the chapters use examples related to infectious diseases, the ideas in this book are relevant to the broader field of global health research and practice. This book is organized into three sections broadly related to foundational concepts, present experiences, case studies, and future visions. The first section focuses on the historical colonial legacy of global health and the foundations needed for equitable partnerships, introducing key themes explored throughout the book. These include concepts related to decolonization, ethics, gender systems, approaches, and transdisciplinary science. Planetary Health, One Health, team science, and communication. The book's second section draws on case studies of global health partnerships to understand where we are today in global health. Authors share their experiences responding to global health threats, including disease outbreaks, refugee health stigma, and sexually transmitted diseases, and post-disaster community recovery. The book's third section articulates a new vision for global health partnerships to co-create a more peaceful, equitable, and loving world. This vision is urgently needed to address the challenges emerging in the context of global climate change, the COVID-19 pandemic, and other human threats. This is an open access book.

A Giant Tree has Fallen Seifudein Adem, Jideofor Adibe, 2016-09-01 This book memorialising the life and work of Ali Alamin Mazrui comprises more than 130 tributes written by people ranging from heads of state to journalists Presented here are those tributes for which copyright permissions were received from among the hundreds that appeared online and print In preparing this book it was made very clear that unlike other books of tributes to great men and women there would be no segmentation of the sections based on writers and speakers positions in life Instead it was decided that the tributes be presented in alphabetical order based on writers and speakers last names The decision hinged on the fact that Mazur would not have apposed any segmentation of people by class race ethnicity and gender etc Nonetheless out of great respect for Mazurs immediate family members their tributes are presented first followed by those from his global family members Also included at the beginning of the book are three chapters that comprise an introductory essay a brief biography of Mazur and an essay on metaphorical linguistic analysis of the tributes that follow The book also has a preface by the coeditors and a forward by Salim Ahmed Salim the former Prime Minister of the United Republic of Tanzania and Secretary General of the Organisation of African Unity OAU now known as the Africa Union Dr Salim who served as the Secretary General of the OAU from 1989 to 2001 was Mazuris friend and contemporary Mazruri once described Salim as Mr Africa and the first real
