Hijacked! Clarence Washington Sr., 2021-06-24 In this four volume series Hijacked How Dr King s Dream Became a Nightmare author Clarence Washington Sr dissects Dr Martin Luther King s dream and explores how our failure to adhere to its principles has allowed the dream to be hijacked and turned to a nightmare and it s time to wake up In the third volume of the Hijacked collection The Nightmare the author details the devastating destruction of the lives of an enormous number of poor disadvantaged and middleclass people This represents the destruction of the American way of life as a direct result of the hijack of Dr King s dream a dream that is so inseparably connected to the American dream Today America could be depicted as a waning great person who is standing on the edge of a tall building at the top of the world looking around in deep contemplation not knowing exactly what to do next If the winds of change blow too hard this wavering person could lose their focus fall and plunge to their death never again to regain their greatness To step back from the edge we must all do our part to make King s dream a reality instead of watching it morph into something dark The Nightmare is an exposition of the tragic evidence of America's imminent loss of her exceptional nation status and the opportunity to make Dr King's dream a reality For the full dissection of Dr King's dream and how our failure to adhere to its principles has led to a nightmare explore the other volumes in Hijacked How Dr King's Dream Became a Nightmare Other volumes in this series focus on the dream the hijack itself and how we can recover World Christianity and Interfaith Relations Richard F. Young, 2022 World Christianity and Interfaith Relations makes the case that religion is not partitioned off from the secular in the Global South the way it is in the Global North Rather religion is deeply integrated into the lives of those in the Global South even though secularism officially predominates "Making a Way Out of No Way" Wolfgang Mieder, 2010 In barely forty years of life Martin Luther King 1929-1968 distinguished himself as one of the greatest social reformers of modern times civil rights leader defender of nonviolence in the struggle of desegregation champion of the poor anti war proponent and broad minded visionary of an interrelated world of free people His many verbal and written communications in the form of sermons speeches interviews letters essays and several books are replete with Bible proverbs as Love your enemies He who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword and Man does not live by bread alone as well as folk proverbs as Time and tide wait for no man Last hired first fired No gain without pain and Making a way out of no way He also delighted in citing quotations that have become proverbs to wit No man is an island All men are created equal and No lie can live forever King recycles these bits of traditional wisdom in various contexts varying his proverbial messages as he addresses the multifaceted issues of civil rights His rhetorical prowess is thus informed to a considerable degree by his effective use of his repertoire of proverbs which he frequently uses as leitmotifs or amasses into set pieces of fixed phrases to be employed repeatedly Power, Discourse and Victimage Ritual in the War on Terror Michael Blain, 2016-04-08 Blending concepts from dramatism such as victimage ritual with Foucault's approach to modern power and knowledge regimes this book presents a novel and illuminating perspective on political power and domination resulting from the global war on terrorism With attention to media sources and political discourse within the context of the global war on terror the author draws attention to the manner in which power elites construct scapegoats by way of a victimage ritual thus providing themselves with a political pretext for extending their power and authority over new territories and populations as well as legitimating an intensification of domestic surveillance and social control A compelling analysis of ritual rhetoric and political violence Power Discourse and Victimage Ritual in the War on Terror will be of interest to sociologists political theorists and scholars of media and communication concerned with questions of surveillance and social control political communication hegemony foreign policy and the war on terror The Elgar Companion to War, Conflict and Peacebuilding in Africa Geoff Harris, 2024-02-12 This dynamic Companion brings together esteemed academics from across the globe to provide ten distinct approaches to peacebuilding in Africa With a timely and forward thinking approach to war and conflict the book focuses on the utilisation of traditional African dialogue in contemporary peacebuilding developing infrastructures and argues is often a first step toward the recognition and even possibly the acceptance of grace Individual chapters look at these themes in the works of Flannery O Connor J F Powers Walker Percy Tim Gautreaux Alice McDermott George Saunders and Phil Klay and Kirstin Valdez Quade

All of Us Atoms Holly Dawson, 2025-05-08 You tell me we are made of seven billion billion billion atoms I can feel every one of them as I write this all down It s a rush to feel that like falling in love Remembering is like falling in love with you with us again and again What makes us who we are What stories do we inherit and leave behind Faced with the prospect of losing her memory a writer revisits the moments that changed her from childhood to motherhood loss and ill health Through shifting pronouns and perspectives moving across place and time each piece twists the kaleidoscope of existence to make sense of the present through the past From the opening battle between her brain and her body a conversation emerges between her collection of selves the Daughter the Sister the Dancer the Gardener the Mother the Girl Who Read Woolf Reliving her journey of becoming she unpicks the fabric of fact and experience to stitch a new tapestry of personhood both real and imaginary mundane and profound All of Us Atoms offers a tender portrait of the tension between our drive to make sense of things and the freedom that comes from throwing categories away It heralds the arrival of a major new literary voice urging us to reframe and reclaim our own stories and revel in our mutable messy multitudinous selves
