Creating Performances for Teaching and Learning Chris McRae, Aubrey Huber, 2017-07-13 This book uses the metaphors of practice spaces and practice sessions to demonstrate the connection between creative and performance practices and critical pedagogy. It offers a conceptual framework for using performance and creative practices as starting points for developing philosophies and practices of teaching that are grounded in aesthetic creative and critical approaches to education. The practice sessions for pedagogy presented include a range of creative endeavours such as performance workshops, musical routines, crafting practices and writing. By focusing on the critical function of creative practices, the book emphasizes the ways creativity can reveal the relationship between everyday acts and social and cultural ideologies and structures.
