Moralizing the Italian Marvellous in Early Modern England Beatrice Fuga,Alessandra Petrina,2024-11-08 This volume breaks new ground in the exploration of Anglo Italian cultural relations it presents analyses of a wide range of early modern Italian texts adapted into contemporary English culture often through intermediary French translations When transposed into English their Italian origin was frequently categorized as marvellous and consequently censured because of its strangeness thus English translators often gave their public a moralized and tamed version of Italy s uniqueness This volume s contributors show that an effective way of moralizing Italian custom was to exoticize its origins in order to protect the English public from an Italianate influence This ubiquitous moralization is visible in the evolution of the concept of tragedy and in the overtly educational aim acquired by the Italian novella adapted for an allegedly female audience Through the analysis of various literary genres novella epic poem play essay the volume focuses on the mechanisms of appropriation and rejection of Italian culture through imported topoi and narremes

Mind and Morality John Bricke,1996 John Bricke presents a philosophical study of the theory of mind and morality that David Hume developed in his Treatise of Human Nature and other writings The chief elements in this theory of mind are Hume s accounts of reasons for action and of the complex interrelations of desire volition and affection On this basis Professor Bricke lays out and defends Hume s thoroughgoing non cognitivist theory of moral judgement and shows that cognitivist and standard sentimentalist readings of Hume are unsatisfactory as are the usual interpretations of his views on the connections between morality justice and convention

Hybridity and Its Discontents Avtar Brah,Annie Coombes,2005-08-03 Hybridity and its Discontents explores the history and experience of hybridity the mixing of peoples and cultures in North and South America Latin America Britain and Ireland South Africa Asia and the Pacific The contributors trace manifestations of hybridity in debates about miscengenation and racial purity in scientific notions of genetics and race in processes of cultural translation and in ideas of nation community and belonging The contributors begin by examining the persistence of anxieties about racial contamination from nineteenth century fears of miscegenation to more recent debates about mixed race relationships and parenting Examining the lived experiences of children of mixed parentage contributors ask why such fears still thrive in a supposedly tolerant culture The contributors go on to discuss how science while apparently neutral is part of cultural discourses which affect its constructions and
