Craft Arts International ,1997 Conceptual Odysseys Griselda Pollock,2007-10-24 The theoretical turn within the arts and humanities in the 1970s and 1980s has for many had its day with work produced under its rubric all too often feeling tired or even downright lazy In its place whilst hazarding against an outright rejection of theory this book introduced by Mieke Bal presents work by a new generation of scholars responding directly to Bal s idea of the travelling concept By taking a concept from one discipline and with a genuine understanding of its origin thoughtfully applying this in a new context exciting new possibilities are opened up for analysis of artworks and other cultural objects Here we find these travelling concepts employed in fresh explorations of subjects as diverse as the paintings of Poussin and of Adam Elsheimer Chantal Akerman s film the Museum of the French Revolution and the work of German Jewish painter Charlotte Salomon This is a uniquely illuminating contribution to the edgy territorial conflicts between visual culture art history and cultural studies
