Unv Of Limpopo 2015 2nd Timetable

Taylor A. Foerster, John L.
Koprowski, Matthew M. Mars

Unv Of Limpopo 2015 2nd Timetable:

Archives of Times Past Cynthia Kros, Geoffrey Blundell, Jan Boeyens, Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi, Amanda Esterhuysen, Grant McNulty, Rachel King, Hlonipha Mokoena, Lize Kriel, Fred Morton, Muchaparara Musemwa, Ndukuyakhe Ndlovu, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Himal Ramji, Justine Wintjes, 2022-02 Archives of Times Past explores particular sources of evidence on southern Africa's time before the colonial era. It gathers recent ideas about archives and archiving from scholars in southern Africa and elsewhere focusing on the question: How do we know or think we know what happened in the times before European colonialism? The essays by well-known historians, archaeologists and researchers engage these questions from a range of perspectives and in illuminating ways. Written from personal experience they capture how these experts encountered their archives of knowledge beyond the textbook. The essays are written at a time when public discussion about the history of southern Africa before the colonial era is taking place more openly than at any other time in the last hundred years. They will appeal to students, academics, educationists, teachers, archivists and heritage museum practitioners and the general public. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Gender and Educational Leadership and Management Victoria Showunmi, Pontso Moorosi, Charol Shakeshaft, Izhar Oplatka, 2022-02-24 Drawing together diverse research perspectives and theoretical underpinnings, this handbook explores gender as a social category and examines cultural and social differences. Bringing together diverse perspectives from around the world including from Africa, Europe, the Middle East, the UK and the USA, the volume sets out the gender and educational leadership and management field, providing a snapshot of the field as it stands, signalling its development and directions for future development. It offers focused reviews of empirical research on particular aspects of the field and presents new insights from research findings and methodological approaches.

Academic Citizenship, Identity, Knowledge, and Vulnerability Nuraan Davids, 2023-10-09 This book brings into contestation the idea of academic citizenship as a homogenous and inclusive space. It delves into who academics are and how they come to embody their academic citizenship, if at all. Even when academics hold similar professional standings, their citizenship and implied notions of participation, inclusion, recognition and belonging are largely pre-determined by their personal identity markers rather than what they do professionally. As such, it is hard to ignore not only the contested and vulnerable terrain of academic citizenship but the necessity of unpacking the agonistic space of the university which both sustains and benefits from these contestations and vulnerabilities. The book is influenced by a postcolonial vantage point, interested in unblocking and opening spaces, thoughts and voices not only of reimagined embodiments and expressions of academic citizenship but of hitherto silenced and discounted forms of knowledge and being. It draws on academics' stories at various universities located in South Africa, USA, UK, Hong Kong and the Philippines. It steps into the unexplored constructions of how knowledge is used in the deployment of valuing some forms of academic citizenship while devaluing others. The book argues that different kinds of knowledge are necessary for both the building and questioning of theory, the more expansive our immersion into knowledge the greater the capacities and opportunities for unlearning and relearning Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Rock | Water | Life Lesley Green, 2020-03-20 In Rock Water Life Lesley Green examines the interwoven realities of inequality racism colonialism and environmental destruction in South Africa calling for environmental research and governance to transition to an ecopolitical approach that could address South Africa's history of racial oppression and environmental exploitation Green analyzes conflicting accounts of nature in environmental sciences that claim neutrality amid ongoing struggles for land restitution and environmental justice Offering in depth studies of environmental conflict in contemporary South Africa Green addresses the history of contested water access in Cape Town struggles over natural gas fracking in the Karoo debates about decolonizing science the potential for a politics of soil in the call for land restitution urban baboon management and the consequences of sending sewage to urban oceans Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy, and Leadership in Higher Education Mukerji, Siran, Tripathi, Purnendu, 2016-09-27 The creation of a sustainable and accessible higher education systems is a pivotal goal in modern society Adopting strategic frameworks and innovative techniques allows institutions to achieve this objective The Handbook of Research on Administration Policy and Leadership in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on contemporary management issues in educational institutions and presents best practices to improve policies and retain effective governance Addressing the current state of higher education at an international level this book is ideally designed for academicians educational administrators researchers and professionals African Language Media Phillip Mpofu, Israel A. Gottzén, Margunn Bjørnholt, Floretta Boonzaier, 2020-11-05 Men Masculinities and Intimate Partner Violence examines how gender and other social identities and inequalities shape experiences of and responses to violence in intimate relationships. It provides new insights into men as both perpetrators and victims of violence as well as on how to involve men and boys in anti-violence work. The chapters explore partner violence from the perspectives of researchers, therapists, activists, organisations, media as well as men of different background and sexual orientation. Highlighting the distinct and ambivalent ways we relate to violence and masculinity, this timely volume provides nuanced approaches to men, masculinity and intimate partner violence in various societies in the global North and South. This book foregrounds scholarship on men and masculinities in the context of intimate partner violence. By doing so, it revitalises feminist theorising and research on partner abuse and brings together the fields of masculinity studies and studies of intimate partner violence. The book will be a vital resource for students and scholars in criminology, gender studies, psychology, social work and sociology as well as those working with men and boys. Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license. A Minimally Good Life

Nicole Hassoun, 2024-07-12 What do we owe to each other simply out of respect or concern for our common humanity? What can we claim? The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as many states' constitutions embody competing answers to these questions. Different accounts of what we owe to others out of concern for our common humanity ground divergent accounts of the basic minimum. Just societies and the international community must help people secure a Minimally Good Life. Argues that concern for our common humanity requires helping others live minimally good lives when doing so does not require sacrificing our own ability to live well enough. This it suggests provides a unified answer to the question of what we must give to and can demand from others as a basic minimum. More precisely, Nicole Hassoun argues that people must obtain the things that let them secure the relationships, pleasures, knowledge, appreciation, worthwhile activities and other things that a reasonable and caring person free from coercion and constraint would set as a minimal standard of justifiable aspiration. That is, as reasonable, caring, free people, we should put ourselves into each other's shoes and think about what we need to live well enough as each person. Hassoun makes this case by engaging with the main competitors in the literature: those that offer different accounts of the basic minimum and the limits of our obligations. She then defends a new way of helping people in present and future generations reach the sufficiency threshold and of responding to apparent tragedy when helping everyone seems impossible. Yearbook of

Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO, 2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover

The Report: South Africa 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-12-08 Indeed since the end of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has become a major diplomatic player both on the African continent as well as further afield Despite the size of South Africa's economy the country currently faces a number of major economic challenges As of the end of July 2014 the unemployment rate was at 25.5% according to data from Statistics South Africa which was among the highest in the world While the government's long term development plans are generally highly regarded delivery and execution has occasionally been problematic While there are major hurdles that must be cleared given the country's strong institutions and the rapid pace of economic expansion over the past two decades South Africa should be able to look forward to 20 more years of peace and steady sustained economic growth

Song Walking Angela Impey, 2018-11-28 Song Walking explores the politics of land its position in memories and its foundation in changing land use practices in western Maputaland a borderland region situated at the juncture of South Africa Mozambique and Swaziland Angela Impey investigates contrasting accounts of this little known geopolitical triangle offsetting textual histories with the memories of a group of elderly women whose songs and everyday practices narrativize a century of borderland dynamics Drawing evidence from women's walking songs amaculo manihamba once performed while traversing vast distances to the accompaniment of the European mouth harp isitweletwele she uncovers the manifold impacts of internationally driven transboundary environmental conservation on land livelihoods and local senses of place This book links ethnomusicological research to larger themes of international development environmental conservation gender and local economic access to resources By demonstrating that development processes are essentially cultural processes and revealing how music fits within this frame Song Walking testifies to the affective spatial and economic dimensions of place while contributing to a more inclusive and culturally apposite alignment between land and environmental policies and local needs and practices those who care about improving the lives of people across the globe Ritual Healing in the Zion Christian Church in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2025-10-16 This book signifies a distinct separation of the ritual healing process in the Zion Christian Church from traditional African medicine while also attempting to synthesize contemporary medical approaches with indigenous knowledge systems The Zion Christian Church is recognized for its distinctive amalgamation of religious activities which include faith healing prophecy and significant pilgrimages particularly the Easter pilgrimage to Moria Despite the church's emphasis on the Christian identity within its faith healing practices some observers interpret various rituals and beliefs as syncretic Consequently these readings have led to allegations that the church integrates aspects of African traditional medicine and witchcraft into its rituals This book utilizes the church as a case study to examine healing faith practices and rituals thereof within the larger framework and context of African Independent Churches This theology is used to help place the faith of patients and the importance of God's role as healer ahead of the healing rituals Its unique theme driven interconnected chapters contain discussions around various practices encompassing purification and protection rituals as well as therapeutic worship Consequently scholars in religious studies theology anthropology and history will find this book an important resource in understanding the role of healing rituals among African Independent Churches

Families in Motion Clara Gerhardt, 2019-11-13 Dynamics of the family can be seen as a complex set of interrelated cogs like the dials and wheels within a sophisticated timepiece Families in Motion Dynamics in Diverse Contexts is a clear comprehensive and contextual view of how the dials and wheels of that complex set work together With a focus on multicultural competence through diverse contexts and examples this new text explores the complexities of the family regarding roles functions and development in a way that is approachable for students Grounded in theory and using 40 years of academic experience author Clara Gerhardt guides readers through concepts of family theories and examines the ever changing movement communication and conditions of both the family as a system and each member within the system Covering approaches from the theoretical to the therapeutic Families in Motion will support students in extending their cultural competence while understanding families and their members with greater confidence The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinodhan Naidoo, 2018-09-05 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning
