Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg, Dirk Kruijt, Shrikant Paranjpe, 2020-04-20 The post cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era at another level these phenomena manifested in new forms Whether the issues of economics and trade transfer of technologies challenges of intervention or humanitarian crisis the countries of the South previously pejoratively labelled Third World or developing countries have continued to address these challenges within the framework of their capabilities and concerns The volume explores defence diplomacies national security challenges and strategies dynamics of diplomatic manoeuvres and strategic resource management of Latin American southern African and Asian countries

Emerging Trends in Social Policy from the South Ilcheong Yi, Alexandra Kaasch, Kelly Stetter, 2024-05-21 Drawing on international case studies from emerging economies and developing countries including South Africa India Egypt Morocco Jordan Tunisia Indonesia China and Russia this book examines the rise nature and effectiveness of recent developments in social policy in the Global South By analysing these new emerging trends the book aims to understand how they can contribute to meaningful change and whether they could offer alternative solutions to the social economic and environmental policy challenges facing low income countries within a contemporary global context It pays particular attention to reforms and innovations relating to the objectives of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development including the move away from a welfare state towards a welfare multitude in which new actors such as civil society organisations play an increasingly important role in social policy

Social Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Ndangwa Noyoo, 2019-11-01 This book critically examines the current social policy in post apartheid South Africa and proposes an alternative social policy agenda to create a new development pathway for the country Taking social policy as a vehicle that will facilitate the creation of a new society altogether namely the Good Society the author argues for the adoption of policy that will socially re engineer South Africa The author shows how the policy tools and development interventions which were undertaken by the post apartheid state in driving South Africa's transformation agenda failed to emancipate many individuals families and communities from the cycle of intergenerational poverty and underdevelopment He contends that social policy interventions that foster the social re engineering of South African society must take place to untangle the inherited colonial apartheid social order This book includes comparative analyses on the Global South and Global North to present the ways in which countries such as post Second World War Great Britain and Sweden and post independence Zambia of the 1960s and 1970s were able to use social policy to create new societies altogether or places similar to the Good Society The conceptual and methodological issues that form the basis for this book reside in public policy making and the public good and will be of interest to scholars of social policy social development and South African society Domains of Freedom Thembela Kepe, Melissa Levin, Bettina von Lieres, 2016-09-12 After more than 20 years of freedom in South Africa we have to ask ourselves difficult questions are we willing to perpetuate a lie search for facts or think wishfully Freedom has been enabled by apartheid's end but at the same time some of apartheid's key institutions and social relations are reproduced under the guise of democracy This collection of essays acknowledges the enormous expectations placed on the shoulders of the South African revolution to produce an alternative political regime in response to apartheid and global neo liberalism It does not lament the inability of South Africa's democracy to provide deeper freedoms or suggest that since it hasn't this is some form of betrayal Freedom is made possible and/or limited by local political choices contemporary global conditions and the complexities of social change This book explores the multiplicity of spaces within which the dynamics of social change unfold and the complex ways in which power is produced and reproduced In this way it seeks to understand the often non linear practices through which alternative possibilities emerge the lengthy and often indirect ways in which new communities are imagined and new solidarities are built In this sense this book is not a collection of hope or despair Nor is it a book that seeks to situate itself between these two poles Instead it aims to read the present historically critically and politically and to offer insights into the ongoing iterative and often messy struggles for freedom Commonwealth Universities Yearbook, 2007

The Ixodid Ticks (Acari: Ixodidae) of Southern Africa Ivan G. Horak, Heloise Heyne, Roy Williams, G. James Gallivan, Arthur M. Spickett, J. practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization South
