Up Board Of Madrasa Education Lucknow:

Pedagogy of Islam Mujibul Hasan Siddiqui, 2020-01-01 As commonly understood pedagogy is the approach to teaching. It refers to the theory and practice of learning and how this process influences and is influenced by the social, political and psychological development of learners. Initially, religious traditions embody inherent pedagogical perspectives, a way of teaching religion. And especially among Muslim scholarship, conceptual aspects of a philosophy of education rooted in Islam have been articulated but often piecemeal, making it quite inaccessible to Islamic schools today. In fact, the real challenge has been in synthesising philosophies of Islamic pedagogy in a way that is relevant and applicable to contemporary schools. The present book, titled Pedagogy of Islam, consists of twelve chapters penned by various renowned teachers, teacher trainers, and researchers working at different universities and institutes of higher learning. All crucial issues like conceptual and historical aspects of Islam, aims and objectives of education, methods of teaching and learning, curriculum development, reform, lesson planning in Islamic pedagogy, etc. are given elaborate treatment herein. Beyond the Madrasa Nilanjana Gupta, 2022-12-30 This book looks at madrasas and educational institutions run by Muslim communities in India, focusing on the history, social relevance, and importance of these institutions. It provides a sensitive and in-depth analysis of the push and pull of tradition, religiosity, and modernity within these establishments. The book studies several institutions in Kozhikode, Surat, Mumbai, Hyderabad, Barak Valley in Assam, Ladakh, Delhi, and several cities in Uttar Pradesh, and examines new initiatives, curricula, models of education, and professional training being offered. It contextualises educational reforms in madrasas in response to changing policies and larger socio-economic realities in contemporary India. It also interrogates stereotypes associated with Islam and madrasa education, paying particular attention to their syllabi and desired outcomes. This book also looks at the roles and positions of women in these institutions. Emphasising the long and complex history of Muslim communities and madrasas, the book showcases the remarkable diversity of approaches and pedagogical practices which combine deeni and duniyati education across India today. This book will be of interest to students and researchers of the history of education, religious education, comparative education, and sociology. It will also be useful to people working with NGOs and policymakers in the field of educational reform and planning. Alpjan, 2006 Madrasa Education in India Kuldeep Kaur, 1990

Islamic Education, Diversity and National Identity Jan-Peter Hartung, Helmut Reifeld, 2006-01-04 This collection of essays considers the position of Madrasa education in a post 9/11 world. The authors question whether the Dini Madaris (Muslim educational institutions) are linked to terrorism and explore both the transparency of funding and patronage and whether there are political implications to this educational system. Muslim India, 2007 Directory of Institutions for Higher Education India.
