Popular Geopolitics and Nation Branding in the Post-Soviet Realm Robert A. Saunders, 2016-07-07 This seminal book explores the complex relationship between popular geopolitics and nation branding among the Newly Independent States of Eurasia and their combined role in shaping contemporary national image and statecraft within and beyond the region. It provides critical perspectives on international relations, nationalism, and national identity through the use of innovative approaches focusing on popular culture, new media, public diplomacy, and alternative narrators of the nation. By positing popular geopolitics and nation branding as contentious forces and complementary flows, the study explores the tensions and elisions between national self-image and external perceptions of the nation and how this complex interplay has become integral to contemporary global affairs.

Squared Away G. B. Trudeau, 2023-12-14 In a class by itself, Jules Feiffer on Doonesbury. This all-color volume celebrates the marriage of Alex and Toggle, an event which optimistically confirms that life like Doonesbury rolls on. Indeed, how remarkable that the strip has so embraced and occupied its era that three generations of one family have married within its panels. Gathering their kith and kin around them at Walden, the wise but wounded soldier artist and the brilliant but insecure techhead make a promising team for the years ahead, well rounded yet squared away. Doonesbury's fifth decade finds the largest rep company in the history of comic strips, fully and widely engaged. Like so many flesh and blood fellow citizens, key characters now struggle with dramatic career change and job stress. And the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan continue to reverberate through the lives of others as the strip illuminates their experiences with an attentiveness unparalleled in popular culture. Amid the relentless unfolding of unexpected storylines, the strip's second and third generation characters increasingly take center stage, and the youngest regular, Sam, comes of age literally in the blink of an eye as the newlyweds prepare to welcome twins. It never ends, and how lucky for readers. Most comic strips run out of creative energy after their initial inspiration; notes Garry Wills, Trudeau has just kept improving year after year.

The Weed Whisperer G. B. Trudeau, 2015-11-10 I don't read Doonesbury. He glorifies drugs. Former White House Press Secretary Marlin Fitzwater. Welcome to the age of pivots. Two centuries after the Founding Fathers signed off on happiness, Zonker Harris and nephew Zipper pull up stakes and head west in hot pursuit. The dream: setting up a major grow facility outside Boulder, Colorado, and becoming bajillionaire producers of artisanal marijuana. For Zonk, it's the crowning reset of a career that's ranged from babysitting to waiting tables. For Walden grad Zip, it's a way to confront 600,000 in student loans. Elsewhere in Free Agent America, newlyweds Alex and Toggle are struggling. Twins Eli and Danny show up during their mother's MIT graduation, but a bad economy dries up lab grants, compelling the newly minted PhD to seek employment as a barista. Meanwhile, eternally blocked writer Jeff Redfern struggles to keep the Red Rascal legend in his own mind franchise alive while aging music icon Jimmy T endures by adapting to his industry's new normal.
