- 4 The biggest obstacle can be how important and long the effort will take. Remember, you must invest time in each phase of the plan. One day out of the month for reviewing a brand's competitive status and setting the plan along with the sales manager isn't enough. It's important with a sales plan, like this, that it be a flexible number. You will need to check it often, when the sales and marketing people meet. There are signs of success that must not be missed up. On average, you should go back to the business plan every 3 to 6 weeks. This provides some
