Capitalist Networks and Social Power in Australia and New Zealand Georgina Murray, 2017-09-29 It is often asserted that the ruling elite in Western capitalist economies now consists of liberal intellectuals and their media sympathisers By contrast this book looks at the real elite in Australian and New Zealand society and shows that there is still a ruling class based upon economic dominance From an analysis of corporate and public records interviews and other primary and secondary data it develops a picture of networks of power that are changing but are as real as any network in the past Economic

Regulation and Its Reform Nancy L. Rose, 2014-08-29 The past thirty years have witnessed a transformation of government economic intervention in broad segments of industry throughout the world Many industries historically subject to economic price and entry controls have been largely deregulated including natural gas trucking airlines and commercial banking However recent concerns about market power in restructured electricity markets airline industry instability amid chronic financial stress and the challenges created by the repeal of the Glass Steagall Act which allowed commercial banks to participate in investment banking have led to calls for renewed market intervention Economic Regulation and Its Reform collects research by a group of distinguished scholars who explore these and other issues surrounding government economic intervention Determining the consequences of such intervention requires a careful assessment of the costs and benefits of imperfect regulation Moreover government interventions may take a variety of forms from relatively nonintrusive performance based regulations to more aggressive antitrust and competition policies and barriers to entry This volume introduces the key issues surrounding economic regulation provides an assessment of the economic effects of regulatory reforms over the past three decades and examines how these insights bear on some of today s most significant concerns in regulatory policy

Controlling Market Power in Telecommunications Damien Geradin, Michel Kerf, 2003 Controlling market power is a crucial issue in liberalised telecommunications markets By comparatively analysing five countries this book explores how the regulatory framework should be designed
