Answer key in Guide Questions

Tell Tale Heart
By Edgar Allan Poe

1. How is the story narrated (POV)? What effect does this have on the way the story is told?

Edgar Allen Poe is known for his classic horror story entitled "The Tell- Tale Heart" published in 1843. The narrator of this story shares the story from his own, personal perspective. Therefore, the story is told in a first-person point of view by using personal pronouns such as I, me, and my. The narrator is able to tell his tale as only he can experience it.

The narrator carefully plotted murder through specific details and descriptive words. Through the narrator's denial of madness, the description of the old man's eye and the use of repetition made the readers feel mixed emotions.

The narrator's primary purpose entails convincing the reader that he is not insane. The speaker provides few details to enable the reader to visualize him physically. However, he speaks to his internal purpose and finds excuses for his behavior at every turn. In the beginning of the story, the narrator told that he is extremely nervous but not mad, paranoid, and physically and mentally ill. The effects of the opening remarks by the narrator makes the reader realize that he is insane and the denial of madness of the narrator creates a frightening mood.

The narrator shares his obsession with the old man's eye and compares it with the eye of a vulture. This eye troubles him and appears to permit the narrator's excuse for taking the life of the old man. The effects of the narrator describing the old man's eye and revealing his feelings towards it throughout the story, the reader experiences an eerie mood and the story became creepy.

The narrator uses repetition of words in the story that adds to the suspense and creates a terrifying mood. As the narrator views the old man and his eye, he repeats words to increase the tension and to create fear within the reader. The effects of the repetition of certain words creates a mood of fear and terror in the minds of the reader.

2. Who is the central character of the story? What is this person like?

The central character in the story the "The Tell-Tale Heart" by Edgar Allan Poe is the narrator who is obsessed with specific and unadorned entities: the old man's eye, the heartbeat, and his own claim to sanity. The narrator is difficult to understand because he
