Preventing and Reducing Violence in Schools and Society Singh, Swaranjit, Erbe, Nancy D., 2021-02-05 In recent years different regions of the world have been unfortunately experiencing an increase in violent acts within various communities For example the United States has seen an emergence of severe violence within schools over the past two decades This tragic phenomenon is causing administrators and practitioners to rethink teaching techniques and implement concepts of violence prevention within schools and other social organizations Preventing and Reducing Violence in Schools and Society is a collection of innovative research on the evolution and implementation of nonviolence concepts within social settings in order to repent oppression and violence among global communities The book explores the effective diffusion of violence through masterful negotiation and mediation skills as well as mentoring counseling and related processes While highlighting topics including nonviolent teaching active shooter training and LGBT phobia this book is ideally designed for UN governments and their heads politicians NGOs communities riddled with gang and other violence schools educational leaders social organizations community leaders teachers preachers religious leaders mediators peace activists law enforcement researchers and students seeking current research on contemporary nonviolence techniques to facilitate change in schools and other societal environments

Identities for Life and Death Robert J. Pellegrini, 2010-09 This book is all about stories The stories that shape our identities and how those identities shape our destinies for better or worse for good or evil in humanizing or dehumanizing ways Working from the Shakespearian metaphor All the world s a stage and all the men and women merely players Pellegrini argues that only by understanding how our storied selves develop can we acquire the tools to modify the roles they dictate for us to play on the stage in the theater of real life The author deconstructs a wide variety of what he calls toxic dehumanizing death oriented self scripts as well as creative humanizing life oriented narratives of groups as well as individuals Following the Native American parable of two wolves engaged in mortal combat within us one good the other evil the fundamental premise here is that our identity determines which of our inner wolves we feed and thus which of them will prevail Pellegrini maintains that what s at stake in this battle between humanity s collective inner wolves is not just the quality but the very survival of life on earth From this perspective as individual and group selves are humanizingly or dehumanizingly narratized by the way we exercise our God given free will in the choices we make so shall life be impacted throughout the world To advance the cause of detoxifying identities in our global society the author presents a rationale and program for an international grass roots social movement aimed at achieving a universal sense of belongingness to a global life system You can watch and listen to a video in which Dr Bob Pellegrini talks about this book and why he wrote it by entering Identities for Life and Death in the search bar at youtube com
