Tunis Et Kairouan:

Historic Cities of the Islamic World Clifford Edmund Bosworth, 2007-01-01 This book contains articles on historic cities of the Islamic world ranging from West Africa to Malaysia which over the centuries have been centres of culture and learning and of economic and commercial life and which have contributed much to the consolidation of Islam as a faith and as a social and political institution The articles have been taken from the second edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam completed in 2004 but in many cases expanded and rewritten All have been updated to include fresh historical information with note of contemporary social developments and population statistics The book thus delineates the urban background of Islam as it has evolved up to the present day highlighting the role of such great cities as Cairo Istanbul Baghdad and Delhi in Islamic history and also brings them together in a rich panorama illustrating one of mankind's greatest achievements the living organism of the city Tunis, Kairouan & Carthage, 1908 The Land of Veiled Women John Foster Fraser, 1911

The Lost Libraries of Tunis Laura Hinrichsen, 2024-08-19 Only little is known about the book culture of Tunis although the city had been a centre for teaching and learning throughout its rule in Ifriqiya c 1230 to 1574 The libraries of Tunis are considered lost since the sack of the city by the armies of the emperor Charles V in the summer of 1535 This study reconstructs for the first time the original holdings of Tunis medieval libraries and shows what can still be learned from these recovered fragments An in depth analysis of a wide range of texts and artefacts shows that the Ifriqiya libraries were looted and their collections redistributed mostly among European collectors The Lost Libraries of Tunis brings Early Modern scholarship on Arabic texts and language into context by utilising the manuscripts from Ifriqiya as a source to map the interest in and scholarship on Arabic manuscripts in Early Modern Europe With an art historical and sociohistorical interpretation of the reconstructed manuscript corpus The Lost Libraries of Tunis challenges views accepted among Islamic art historians and describes a dynamic and vivid regional book culture of the Maghreb embedded in the wider Arabic manuscript tradition precisely showing strong interaction and exchange Tunis Et Kairouan ... Ouvrage Orné de 110 Gravures Henri Saladin, 1908 Bradshaw's Through Routes to the Chief Cities, and Bathing, and Health Resorts of the World Eustace Alfred Reynolds-Ball, 1913 Kandinsky and Klee in Tunisia Roger Benjamin, Cristina Ashjian, 2015-08-18 Paul Klee experienced his 1914 trip to Tunisia as a major breakthrough for his art Color and I are one he famously wrote I am a painter Kandinsky and Klee in Tunisia sets the scene for Klee's breakthrough with a close study of the parallel voyage undertaken in 1904-5 by Wassily Kandinsky and Gabriele Münter who would later become Klee's friends This artist couple then at an early stage in their celebrated careers produced a rich body of painting and photography known only to specialists Paul Klee's 1914 trip with August Macke and Louis Moilliet in contrast is a vaunted convergence of cubism and the exotic Roger Benjamin refigures these two seminal voyages in terms of colonial culture and politics the fabric of ancient Tunisian cities visual ethnography and the tourist photograph The book looks closely at the cities of Tunis Sousse Hammamet and Kairouan to flesh out a profound confrontation between European high modernism and the wealth of Islamic lifeways and architecture Kandinsky and Klee in Tunisia offers a new understanding of how the European avant garde was formed in dialogue with cultural difference

Qayrawān William Gallois, 2024-01-23 In the last years of the nineteenth century the Tunisian city of Qayraw n suddenly found itself covered in murals Concentrated on and around the city s Great Mosque these monumental artworks were only visible for about fifty years from the 1880s through the 1930s This book investigates the fascinating history of who created these outdoor paintings and why Using visual archaeological methods William Gallois reconstructs the visual history of these works and vividly brings them back to life He locates pictorial records of the murals from the backdrops of photographs postcards and other forms of European ephemera In Qayraw n he identifies a form of religious painting that transposed traditional aesthetic forms such as house decoration embroidery and tattooing which lay exclusively within the domains of women onto the body of a conquered city Gallois argues that these works were created by women as a form of emergency art intended to offer amuletic protection for the community and demonstrates how they differ markedly from classical Islamic antecedents and modern modes of Arab cultural production in the Middle East and North Africa Based on extensive archival research this study is both a record of a unique moment in the history of art and a challenge to rethink the spiritual force and agency of a group of anonymous female artists whose paintings aspired to help save the world at a time of great peril It will be welcomed by scholars of art history Islamic studies Middle East studies and the history of magic

Ottoman Tunisia Amy Aisen Kallander,2013-09-01 In this first in depth study of the ruling family of Tunisia in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Kallander investigates the palace as a site of familial and political significance Through extensive archival research she elucidates the domestic economy of the palace as well as the changing relationship between the ruling family of Tunis and the government thus revealing how the private space of the palace mirrored the public political space Instead of viewing the period as merely a precursor to colonial occupation and the nation state as emphasized in precolonial or nationalist histories this narrative moves away from images of stagnation and dependency to insist upon dynamism Kallander explains She delves deep into palace dynamics comparing them to those of monarchies outside of the Ottoman Empire to find persuasive evidence of a global modernity She demonstrates how upper class Muslim women were active political players exerting their power through displays of wealth such as consumerism and philanthropy Ultimately she creates a rich view of the Husaynid dynastic culture that will surprise many and stimulate debate and further research among scholars of Ottoman Tunisia
