The Wright Stuff A Story Of Perseverance Inspiration And Hope:

The Wright Stuff Victor J. Wright, 2014-10-31 Young and healthy Victor J Wright was only fifteen years old in 1976 when he broke his neck playing football at John Muir High School in Pasadena California He had severed the vertebrae at the second level right under his brain Many suffering this injury would have died but Wright survived In The Wright Stuff author David D Rutherford Wrights former classmate friend and former newspaper reporter tells Wrights story from his birth through his injury and hospitalization and beyond This biography narrates how Wright was one of the first quadriplegics to earn a college degree and how he cofounded a nonprofit organization that provides relief efforts to victims of natural disasters around the world It shares how Wright donates books and audiovisual materials to local libraries and has inspired numerous squads from his high school alma mater to victory In 2013 he was ordained a minister by the Association of Fundamental Ministers and Churches Though Wright has experienced a host of challenges throughout the years he credits his faith in God and the loving care of his family and closest friends for being allowed to live the past four decades in a way that has inspired thousands and has made him a community treasure What Keeps Me Standing Dennis

Kimbro, 2005-04-05 In his previous bestsellers Think and Grow Rich and What Makes the Great Great Dennis Kimbro revealed the success secrets of highly touted entrepreneurs corporate climbers and Olympic athletes as well as famous black Americans from George Washington Carver to Bill Cosby Oprah Winfrey and Jesse Jackson In What Keeps Me Standing he turns to another group of sages and mentors the grandmothers who have long been the backbone of the African American family and community Over a period of five years Kimbro contacted one thousand grandmothers women from a wide range of backgrounds and locations asking If you had to write a one page letter to your children or the next generation what would you tell them about life Their answers collected here show that success in life cannot be measured in terms of wealth and material goods alone The lives they describe and the advice they proffer capture both a richness in spirit and a strong belief in the power of every individual to take charge of his or her own destiny In the face of racism both blatant and subtle financial struggles and personal setbacks black grandmothers have helped their communities in thousands of tangible and intangible ways providing support inspiration and love not only to their own children and grandchildren but also to neighbors friends and extended families Filled with examples of how even the smallest acts of kindness and compassion can make a difference in the world What Keeps Me Standing is a treasure trove of the wisdom that comes with years of experience transformation and growth It is the perfect gift Ebony, 2000-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing
