the dean of Arabic letters Taha Hussein to the Nobel laureate Naguib Mahfouz and the celebrated poet Adonis the anthology offers unforgettable journeys into the rich and dynamic realm of Arab culture Representing a wide range of settings viewpoints and socioeconomic backgrounds the characters speak of their conditions aspirations struggles and achievements living in complex societies marked by tensions arising from the persistence of older traditions and the impact of modernity Their myriad voices paint a vivid and intimate portrait of contemporary Arab life in the Middle East revealing the common humanity of a region of vital significance in world affairs Ageing in the Modern Arabic Novel Samira Aghacy,2020-09-21 No detailed description available for Ageing in the Modern Arabic Novel Postcolonial Audiences Bethan Benwell,James Procter,Gemma Robinson,2012-03-12 Without readers and audiences viewers and consumers the postcolonial would be literally unthinkable And yet postcolonial critics have historically neglected the modes of reception and consumption that make up the politics and pleasures of meaning making during and after empire Thus while recent criticism and theory has made large claims for reading as an ethical act as a means of establishing collective quasi political consciousness as identification with difference as a mode of resistance and as an impulsion to the public imagination the reader in postcolonial literary studies persists as a shadowy figure This collection answers the now pressing need for a distinctively postcolonial take on the rapidly expanding area of reader and reception studies Written by some of the top scholars in the field these essays reveal readers and reception to be varied and profoundly unstable subjects that challenge many of our assumptions and preconceptions of the postcolonial from the notion of reading as national fellowship to the demands of an ethics of reading
