The Yellow Wallpaper And Other Stories:

The Yellow Wall-paper and Other Stories Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 1998 Charlotte Perkins Gilman was America's leading feminist intellectual of the early twentieth century. The Yellow Wall Paper and Other Stories makes available the fullest selection of her short fiction ever printed. In addition to her pioneering masterpiece The Yellow Wall Paper 1890 which draws on her own experience of depression and insanity, this edition features her Impressionist story studies works in the manner of writers such as James Twain and Kipling. These stories together with other fiction from her neglected California period 1890-5 throw new light on Gilman as a practitioner of the art of fiction. In her Forerunner stories she repeatedly explores the situation of the woman of fifty and inspires reform by imagining workable solutions to a range of personal and social problems.

A Story is a short story by American writer Charlotte Perkins Gilman first published in January 1892 in The New England Magazine. It is regarded as an important early work of American feminist literature for its illustration of the attitudes towards mental and physical health of women in the 19th century. Narrated in the first person, the story is a collection of journal entries written by a woman whose physician husband John has rented an old mansion for the summer. Forgoing other rooms in the house, the couple moves into the upstairs nursery. As a form of treatment, the husband forbids the unnamed woman from working or writing and encourages her to eat well and get plenty of air so that she can recuperate from what he calls a temporary nervous depression, a slight hysterical tendency, a diagnosis common to women during that period.
