Writing about music Neil Pace, 2016-04-28 I've been listening to music ever since I was small A few years ago I started to write about it I started to blog and to tweet and to generally annoy anyone who would care to read my secular evangelical rantings about Jonathan Richman and my inexplicable love of kitschy popular music disco hip hop and doo wop Very soon I was writing for the North East's premier music magazine NE MM which became the North East's premier music website Most of my NE MM album and gig reviews are included in Writing about music I've corrected most of the spellings but I've left in all of the grammatical errors I prefer to think of them as quirks Many of my interviews are here too Roger McGuinn Nils Lofgren Matthew Healy Ben Watt Fish Kathryn Williams Duke Special Penetration Thomas Truax Steve Hackett and Nick Heyward who told me he thought Haircut 100 were going to become Britain's Talking Heads There's other stuff too Quite a few lists let's face it making lists is what middle aged men do best including my favourite 50 debut albums which proved hugely controversial with three people on Twitter And by the way I regularly start sentences with and If you're easily offended please look away there are some excerpts from another book that's in the pipeline Quite a long way down the pipeline if I can be brutally honest The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael Weldon, 1996 The bible of B movies is back and better than ever From Abby to Zontar this book covers more than 9 000 amazing movies from the turn of the century right up to today's Golden Age of Video all described with Michael Weldon's dry wit More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out this treasure trove of cinematic lore an essential reference for every bad film fan

The Meaning of Travel Emily Thomas, 2020-02-27 How can we think more deeply about travel This was the thought that inspired Emily Thomas to journey into the philosophy of travel to explore the places where philosophy and travel intersect Part philosophical ramble part memoir The Meaning of Travel begins in the Age of Discovery in the sixteenth century when philosophers first began thinking and writing seriously about travel It then meanders forward to encounter the thoughts of Montaigne on otherness John Locke on cannibals and Henry Thoreau on wilderness On our travels with Emily Thomas we discover the dark side of maps how the philosophy of space fuelled mountain tourism and why you should wash underwear in woodland cabins We also confront profound questions such as the debate on the ethics of doom tourism travel to doomed places such as glaciers or coral reefs and how space travel might come to affect our understanding of human significance in a leviathan universe The first ever history of the places where history and philosophy meet this book will reshape your understanding of travel Computer Arts , 2006 Ate Eol 2000 G 12 Holt Rinehart & Winston, 2000
