Thika TTI new status as center of excellence in autobody building and welding

Thika Technical Training Institute is one of the new TVET institutions expected to benefit from the new German Technical Industrial and Entrepreneurship Training Initiative. Under the scheme, Thika TTI will get funding to become a center of Excellence in autobody building and welding. The programme is expected to help the youth with requisite skills to contribute effectively to the country's development.

The programme in the Coll is in top gear including a Strategic Action Plan (SAP) covering a period of five years up to 2024. The programme is geared towards fully equipped systems involving human resource, facilities and equipment that will enable the Coll to produce graduates that have competencies required by the industry without need for financing. There will also be an established Autobody production line in the institute that will also serve as a vehicle body's production training unit.

The staff under the department is currently being taken through an E-learning training as well as the Institute Learning Management System (LMS). This is in readiness for our first intake under this program that started on 31 October 2020 and is being handled online, to prepare them train virtually on the Moodle platform. The first intake consists of fifteen trainees undertaking Autobody Technician level 4 in body building and welding. This is planned such that they will spend 50% of their training in the institute and 50% in the industry collaborating in the training. This is a great milestone for us as an institution.

The Coll is also proud to announce the launching of THIKA TECHNICAL TRAINING INSTITUTE DRIVING SCHOOL which will be unveiled soon.

COVID-19 Response Preparedness

Thika Technical has adequately prepared for re-opening within the context of COVID-19 requirements. The management has put in place a COVID-19 Response Committee that has been working round the clock to ensure that appropriate health and safety measures have been put in place to guarantee the health and safety of trainees, trainers, non-teaching staff, parents and entire community. So far, our institution is among those colleges that reported to the Cabinet Secret for Education Professor G. Maghoke on the progress for partial re-opening and favourable communication. Principal and the BOG have ensured that the recommendations given during the visit improvement of preparedness compliance have been implemented.
