Thinking with Literature Terence Cave, 2016-03-18 To speak of thinking with literature is to make the assumption that literature in the broadest sense is neither a side show nor a side issue in human cultures it belongs to the spectrum of imaginative modes that includes both philosophical and scientific thought Whether one regards it as a practice or as an archive literature is highly pervasive robust enduring and pregnant with values Thinking with Literature argues that what it affords above all is a way of thinking whether for writer reader or critic Literature constitutes one of the prime instruments of cultural improvisation it is the embodiment of a powerful inventive and ever changing cognitive agency As such it invites a cognitive mode of criticism one which asserts the priority of the individual literary work as a unique product of human cognition In this book discussions of topics arguments and hypotheses from the cognitive sciences philosophy and the theory of communication are woven into the fabric of a critical analysis which insists on the value of close reading a poem by Yeats a scene from Shakespeare novels by Mme de Lafayette Conrad Frantzen stories from Winnie the Pooh and many others appear here on their own terms with their own cognitive energies Written in an accessible style Thinking with Literature speaks both to mainstream readers of literature and to specialists in cognitive studies
