The World Wars Night Two:

One Night, Two Teams Steven Travers, 2007-08-20 In the sweltering heat of September of 1970 on Legion Field the USC Trojans and the University of Alabama's Crimson Tide played a game that defined the emancipation of the South from its sordid history of racial segregation When USC's black running back Sam The Bam Cunningham ran roughshod all over the all white Crimson Tide more than a football game was won Based on interviews with many of the game's participants and thoroughly researched this book presents sports as a metaphor for one of the most profound social changes in history
