By Acheta Domestica L. M. Budgen, 1851 Difficult Men Brett Martin, 2014-07-29 The 10th anniversary edition now with a new preface by the author A wonderfully smart lively and culturally astute survey The New York Times Book Review Grand entertainment fascinating for anyone curious about the perplexing miracles of how great television comes to be The Wall Street Journal I love this book It s the kind of thing I wish I d been able to read in film school back before such books existed Vince Gilligan creator of Breaking Bad and co creator of Better Call Saul In the late 1990s and early 2000s the landscape of television began an unprecedented transformation While the networks continued to chase the lowest common denominator a wave of new shows on cable channels dramatically stretched television s narrative inventiveness emotional resonance and creative ambition Combining deep reportage with critical analysis and historical context Brett Martin recounts the rise and inner workings of this artistic watershed a golden age of TV that continues to transform America's cultural landscape. Difficult Men features extensive interviews with all the major players including David Chase, The Sopranos, David Simon and Ed Burns, The Wire, David Milch, NYPD Blue, Deadwood, Alan Ball, Six Feet Under, and Vince Gilligan, Breaking Bad. Better Call Saul and reveals how television became a truly significant and influential part of our culture. Strong Opinions, Chris Danta, Sue Kossew, Julian Murphet, 2011-07-14. This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority. Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism, the authority of the author, and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work. Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee's work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary. The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee's most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure. The first is the exposure of place: Coetzee's decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia. The second is the exposure of form: Coetzee's direct, almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels. And the third is the exposure of limits: Coetzee's explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life. The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1907. Athenaeum, 1862.

Finding Winnicott, Fadi Abou-Rihan, 2023-03-03. In Finding Winnicott: Philosophical Encounters with the Psychoanalytic, Fadi Abou Rihan expands upon Winnicott's category of the found object and argues that a genuine understanding of the analyst's own thought requires that it be considered in relation to that of another. The essays in this collection are in dialogue with the work of Freud, Deleuze, and Guattari, Laplanche, Bonaventure, Ibn Al Arabi, and Huizinga; these encounters showcase some of Winnicott's yet unexplored contributions to the questions of subjectivity, time, and language. They weave psychoanalytic theory, clinical vignette, and key moments from the history of ideas in order to shed light on our findings regarding and indeed findings of desire on some of the playful but no less compelling ways in which the subject lives, suffers, understands questions, and or normalizes desire. Chapters span a range of topics including rationales, findings, and spaces and highlight the subject as not only that which finds but that which is found. With clinical vignettes throughout, this book is vital reading for practicing analysts as well as analysts in training and students of both philosophy and psychoanalysis. The Educational Times, and Journal of the College of Preceptors, 1861-05.
